

on November 24, 1995 (60 FR 58136), of the final regulations for 34 CFR Part 371, which authorize the Secretary to extend ongoing projects up to an additional two years. The Secretary intends to extend eligible existing projects. This will require the use of a substantial portion of the available FY 1996 funds. The Secretary intends to use the small amount of remaining funds to provide increased grant amounts to existing projects to increase their capacity to serve additional clients and to fund additional applications from the FY 1995 competition that were previously approved but not funded. The FY 1996 competition for new grants is cancelled. It is anticipated that a competition for new grants will be held in FY 1997.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. MT96-12-000]

Carnegie Interstate Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, Carnegie Interstate Pipeline Company (CIPCO) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original

Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, to be effective on April 22, 1996:

First Revised Sheet No. 126

First Revised Sheet No. 127

CIPCO states that the filing updates its compliance with the tariff requirements implementing the Commission's marketing affiliate regulations, as set forth in Section 250.16(b) of the Commission's regulations. The filing revises section 28 of the General Terms and Conditions in CIPCO's tariff.

CIPCO states that copies of its filing were served on all jurisdictional customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the public reference room. #### National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Motion To Place Into Effect Revised Tariff Sheets

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) submitted for filing, pursuant to Section 4(e) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and Section 154.67 of the Commission's Regulations, a motion to place various tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume Nos. 1 and 2, into effect as of the effective dates shown on Appendix A attached to the filing.

National states that on February 16, 1996, the Commission issued a Letter Order approving a settlement offer tendered by National on September 29, 1995, which order became final on March 18, 1996. Pursuant to Article VII of the settlement, National is required to file a motion to place rates into effect on April 1, 1996. The tariff sheets must therefore be made effective pursuant to this motion on their respective effective dates.

National further states that copies of this filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and upon the Regulatory Commissions of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) tendered for filing various tariff sheets as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume Nos. 1 and 2, in compliance with the Letter order issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission on February 16, 1996.

National states that under Article IX of the rate settlement and Article VII of the gathering settlement, the tariff sheets became effective on various dates.

National further states that copies of this filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and upon the Regulatory Commissions of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, Fifteenth Revised Sheet No. 5, proposed to be effective April 1, 1996.

National states that this filing reflects an adjustment to the reservation component of the EFT rate pursuant to the Transportation and Storage Cost Adjustment (TSCA) provision set forth in Section 23 of the General Terms and Conditions of National's FERC Gas Tariff. Section 23 authorizes National to recover the costs recorded in Account No. 858 on the ongoing basis. Further, National is authorized to segregate the reservation and commodity costs. While National previously filed under the TSCA to recover commodity costs (National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation, 73 FERC ¶ 61,382 (1995)), this is the initial filing under the TSCA to recover reservation costs.

National further states that copies of this filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and upon the Regulatory Commissions of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 or 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 or 385.214). All such motions or protests must be filed as provided Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes to FERC Gas Tariff

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, Ninth Revised Sheet No. 237B, with a proposed effective date of April 22, 1996.

National states that these tariff sheets propose to flow refunds through to National's former RQ and CD customers, including interest, received from certain of National's upstream pipeline-suppliers related to National's Account Nos. 191 and 186, as more fully described on the worksheets attached at Appendix B to the filing.

In accordance with Sections 21(c) and (d) of the General Terms and Conditions of National's tariff, National proposes to allocate the $9,469.55 in commodity refunds according to the customers' commodity sales based on the 12 months ending July 31, 1993.

National further states that copies of this filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and upon the Regulatory Commissions of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 or 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 or 385.214). Pursuant to Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations, all such motions or protests must be filed not later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) tendered for filing to be part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, Second Revised Sheet Nos. 58, 146 and 169, to be effective April 22, 1996.

Natural states that the purpose of the filing is to shorten from thirty (30) days to ten (10 days) the time period within which a shipper must execute a firm Agreement tendered by Natural.

Natural requests whatever waivers may be necessary to permit the tariff sheets as submitted to become effective April 22, 1996.

Natural states that copies of the filing are being mailed to Natural's jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.W., Washington D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
