DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Mega Computer Corporation and Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang; Order Denying Permission to Related Persons To Apply for or Use Export Licenses

In the matters of: Mega Computer Corporation, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127 and Peng K. Lim, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127 and Payling Wang, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127.

On August 10, 1994, Charles M. Guernieri, Acting Director, Office of Export Licensing, issued an Order denying Mega Computer Corporation (Mega Computer) permission to apply for or use any export license until March 23, 2002. 59 FR 42804 (August 19, 1994). The Order was based on Mega Computer's conviction of violating the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C.A. app. §§ 2401-2420 (1991 & Supp. 1995)) (the Act).¹ Section 11(h) of the Act provides that any person related, through affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility, to a person who has been denied export privileges as a result of a conviction for violating the Act, may be denied export privileges as well. On June 6, 1995, Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang were notified that the Bureau of Export Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, had reason to believe that they were related to Mega Computer through affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility. They were also advised that, after consulting with the Acting Director, Office of Export Enforcement, I intended to deny them permission to apply for or use any export license, including any general license, because of their relationship to Mega Computer, as provided by the Act and Section 770.15(h) of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR Parts 768-799 (1995)) (the Regulations).

The notification also advised Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang of their right to request a hearing concerning their relationship to Mega Computer within 30 days. Although both Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang received notification, neither of them requested a hearing or made any written response.

Therefore, I hereby find that Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang are related to Mega Computer, a party denied all U.S. export privileges until March 23, 2002, through affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility.

Accordingly, the Order of August 10, 1994 denying Mega Computer permission to apply for or use any export license, including any general license, is hereby amended as follows:

It is ordered: I. All outstanding individual validated licenses in which Mega Computer or either of the related persons, Peng K. Lim or Payling Wang, appears or participates, in any manner or capacity, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Office of Exporter Services for cancellation. Further, all of Mega Computer's, Peng K. Lim's, and Payling Wang's privileges of participating, in any manner or capacity, in any special licensing procedure, including, but not limited to, distribution licenses, are hereby revoked.

II. Until March 23, 2002, Mega Computer Corporation, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127; Peng K. Lim, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127; and Payling Wang, 10840 Thornmint Road, San Diego, California 92127, hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction in the United States or abroad involving any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, in whole or in part, and subject to the Regulations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, participation, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (i) As a party or as a representative of a party to any export license application submitted to the Department; (ii) in preparing or filing with the Department any export license application or request for reexport authorization, or any document to be submitted therewith; (iii) in obtaining from the Department or using any validated or general export license, reexport authorization or other export control document; (iv) in carrying on negotiations with respect to, or in receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of, in whole or in part, any commodities or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, and subject to the Regulations; and (v) in financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. After notice and opportunity for comment as provided in Section 770.15(h) of the Regulations, any person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Mega Computer, Peng K. Lim, or Payling Wang, by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services may also be subject to the provisions of this Order.

IV. As provided in Section 787.12(a) of the Regulations, without prior disclosure of the facts to and specific authorization of the Office of Export Licensing,² in consultation with the Office of Export Enforcement, no person may directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (i) Apply for, obtain, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to an export or reexport of commodities or technical data by, to, or for another person then subject to an order revoking or denying his export privileges or then excluded from practice before the Bureau of Export Administration; or (ii) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate: (a) in any transaction which may involve any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States; (b) in any reexport thereof; or (c) in any other transaction which is subject to the Regulations, if the person denied export privileges may obtain any benefit or have any interest in, directly or indirectly, any of these transactions.

² Because of a recent Bureau of Export Administration reorganization, this responsibility now rests with the Director, Office of Exporter Services.

V. This Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until March 23, 2002.

VI. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to Mega Computer and each of the related persons, Peng K. Lim and Payling Wang. This Order shall be published in the Federal Register.

Entered this 19th day of April, 1996.

Eileen M. Albanese,

Director, Office of Exporter Services.
