

sensitive information is the protection of the confidential source. It is essential that the investigating and prosecuting parties know the identity of a confidential source to physically protect the source during the course of investigative activities and to prevent compromising the source's identity through some inadvertent action by one of the outside investigators or prosecutors. Because it is inappropriate for a source to know the investigative or prosecutorial activities, strategies, or tactics, it is also inappropriate to notify the source that his or her identity is being shared.

4. Circumstances Under Which Confidentiality May Be Revoked

A decision to revoke a grant of confidentiality can only be made by (1) the Commission, (2) the EDO, or (3) the Director, OI. However, the Commission emphasizes that a grant of confidentiality will be revoked only in the most extreme cases. Generally, confidentiality will be revoked only when a confidential source personally takes some action so inconsistent with the grant of confidentiality that the action overrides the purpose behind the confidentiality. For instance, this can happen when the source discloses information in a public forum that reveals his or her status as a confidential source or when he or she has intentionally provided false information to the NRC. Before revoking confidentiality, the Commission will attempt to notify the confidential source of its intent and provide the individual an opportunity to explain why their identity should not be disclosed.

5. Withdrawal of Confidentiality

The NRC official granting confidentiality may withdraw confidentiality without further approval if the confidential source has made such a request in writing and the NRC official has confirmed that the requesting individual is the same person who was granted confidentiality.

6. Conclusion

The Commission views protecting the identity of alleged and confidential sources as an important adjunct to investigative and inspection programs. Therefore, the Commission places great emphasis on protecting the identity of individuals who bring safety concerns to the NRC. However, the Commission recognizes there are limited circumstances when the identity of an alleged or confidential source will be divulged outside the NRC. In those circumstances the Commission will attempt to limit disclosure to the extent possible.

Dated at Rockville, MD, this 17th day of May, 1996.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

John C. Hoyle,

Secretary of the Commission.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirement of Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 which provides opportunity for public comment on new or revised data collections, the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) will publish periodic summaries of proposed data collections.

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed information collection is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the RRB's estimate of the burden of the collection of the information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden related to the collection of information on respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Title and Purpose of information collection:

Medical Reports: OMB 3220-0038.

Under Sections 2(a)(1)(iv), 2(a)(2) and 2(a)(3) of the Railroad Retirement Act (RRA), annuities are payable to qualified railroad employees whose physical or mental condition is such that they are unable to (1) work in their regular occupation (occupational disability); or (2) work at all (permanent total disability). The requirements for establishment of disability and proof of continuance of disability are prescribed in 20 CFR 220. Under Sections 2(c) and 2(d) of the RRA, annuities are also payable to qualified spouses, widows or widowers who have in their care a qualified child who is under a disability which began before age 22; widows or widowers age 50-59 who are under a disability; and remarried widows and surviving divorced wives who would also be entitled under Sections 202(e) and 202(f) of the Social Security Act.

For entitlement under Section 2(d)(v) of the RRA, the individual must have an impairment which is so severe that, in accordance with the regulations of the Social Security Administration, any gainful activity would be precluded. The Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) also determines entitlement to a period of disability or early Medicare entitlement for qualified claimants.

To enable the RRB to determine the eligibility of an applicant or annuitant for disability benefits under the RRA, the RRB requests supportive medical evidence from railroad employers, personal physicians, private hospitals and state agencies. The RRB currently utilizes Forms G-3EMP, G-250, G-250a, G-260, GL-12, RL-11b, and RL-11d to obtain the necessary medical evidence. Completion is voluntary. One response is requested of each respondent.

ESTIMATE OF RESPONDENT BURDEN

Form No.	Annual re-sponses	Time (minutes)	Burden (hours)
G-3EMP	3,800	10	633
G-250	13,500	37	8,325
G-250a	23,500	20	7,833

RL-11b	9,800	10	1,633
RL-11d	250	10	42
Total	50,910	18,494

The RRB proposes minor editorial changes to all of the forms in the collection, primarily to provide respondents the option of responding by facsimile machine and to incorporate language required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.
