[INS No. 1770-96; AG Order No. 2032-96]

RIN 1115-AE26

Extension of Designation of Rwanda Under Temporary Protected Status Program

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice extends, until December 6, 1996, the Attorney General's designation of Rwanda under the Temporary Protected Status ("TPS") program provided for in section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended ("the Act"). Accordingly, eligible aliens who are nationals of Rwanda, or who have no nationality and who last habitually resided in Rwanda, may re-register for Temporary Protected Status and extension of employment authorization. This re-registration is limited to persons who already have registered for the initial period of TPS which ended on June 6, 1995.

EFFECTIVE DATES: This extension of designation is effective on June 7, 1996, and will remain in effect until December 6, 1996. The primary re-registration procedures become effective on June 10, 1996, and will remain in effect until July 9, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Ronald Chirlin, Adjudications Officer, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Room 3214, 425 I Street, NW., Washington, DC 20536, telephone (202) 514-5014.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under section 244A of the Act, as amended by section 302(a) of Public Law 101-649 and section 304(b) of Public Law 102-232 (8 U.S.C. 1254a), the Attorney General is authorized to grant Temporary Protected Status in the United States to eligible aliens who are nationals of a foreign state designed by the Attorney General, or who have no nationality and who last habitually resided in that state. The Attorney General may designate a state upon finding that the state is experiencing ongoing armed conflict, environmental disaster, or certain other extraordinary and temporary conditions that prevent nationals or residents of the country from returning in safety.

Effective on June 7, 1994, the Attorney General designated Rwanda for Temporary Protected Status for a period of 12 months, 59 FR 29440. The Attorney General extended the designation of Rwanda under the TPS program for an additional 12-month period until June 6, 1996, 60 FR 27790.

This notice extends the designation of Rwanda under the Temporary Protected Status program for an additional 6 months, in accordance with sections 244A(b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act. This notice also describes the procedures which eligible aliens who are nationals of Rwanda, or who have no nationality and who last habitually resided in Rwanda, must comply with in order to re-register for TPS.

In addition to timely re-registrations and late re-registrations authorized by this notice's extension of Rwanda's TPS designation, late initial registrations are possible for some Rwandans under 8 CFR 240.2(f)(2). Such late initial registration must have been "continuously physically present" in the United States since June 7, 1994, must have had a valid immigrant or non-immigrant status during the original registration period, and must register no later than 30 days from the expiration of such status. An Application for Employment Authorization, Form I-765, must always be filed as part of either a re-registration or as part of a late initial registration together with the Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821. The appropriate filing fee must accompany Form I-765 unless a
