

close of the application period shall not be considered in the competitive review process; and

(2) Receives at least a minimum score of 85 points in an area competitive review, using the competitive application selection criteria and scoring process set out in 25 CFR 23.33 and 23.34.

If two or more applications receive the same competitive score, the applicant with the largest service area population will receive priority funding consideration. At least one approved applicant per area will be funded, provided, that the applicants fully meet the competitive selection criteria cited above.

The actual funding amounts awarded for the FY 1996 grant year shall be subject to appropriations available nationwide and the amount of funds available within the respective area office. Final funding decisions for all approved grant applications under Subpart D, 25 CFR 23, rest with respective Area Director and are not subject to appeal.

F. Grant Review and Award Process

The Area Director shall review each application through a competitive process and take the appropriate course of action on all off-reservation ICWA grant applications received in response to this notice in accordance with the established requirements and time frames in 25 CFR Parts 23.33(a) and 23.34, respectively. Grant award documents shall be executed and actual grant amounts awarded as expeditiously as possible by the respective Area Director.

No ICWA grant funds will be withheld at the Central Office for purposes of appeals related to funding levels.

G. Appeals

A grantee or applicant may appeal any decision made or action taken by the Area Director under Subpart D, 25 CFR 23, that is alleged to be in violation of the U.S. Constitution, Federal statutes, or regulations of this part. These appeals shall be filed with the Interior Board of Indian Appeals in accordance with 25 CFR 2.4(e); 43 CFR 4.310 through 4.318 and 43 CFR 4.330 through 4.340. An applicant may not appeal a score assigned to its application or the amount of grant funds awarded.

A notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days of the appellant's receipt of the decision being appealed. The notice must be filed in the office of the official whose decision is being appealed. The date of filing is the date the notice of appeal is postmarked or the date it is personally delivered to the official's immediate office (25 CFR 2.9(a); 25 CFR 2.13(a)). The burden of proof of timely filing is on the appellant. No extension of time will be granted for filing a notice of appeal (25 CFR 2.9(a) and 2.16).

Within 30 days of the filing of the notice of appeal, a statement of reasons must be filed in the office of the official whose decision is being appealed. The statement of reasons may, however, be included in or filed with the notice of appeal (25 CFR 2.10). Appeals will be handled in accordance with the provisions set forth at 25 CFR 2.20.
