SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Approval Number: New collection.

Title: Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS), CC Docket No. 90-571, MO&O (Coin Sent-Paid Order).

Form No.: N/A.

Type of Review: New Collection

Respondents: Business or other for-profit.

Number of Respondents: 30 respondents for the 12 and 18 month reports; 3,000 respondents for the disclosure requirement.

Estimated Time Per Response: 7 hours per response for the 12 month report, 9 hours per response for the 18 month report and 2.5 hours per respondent to comply with the disclosure requirement.

Total Annual Burden: 7,980.

Needs and Uses: In Memorandum Opinion and Order, (Order) issued in CC Docket No. 90-571, the Bureau suspended the coin sent-paid requirement until August 26, 1997. This Order requires that payphones be made accessible to TRS users pursuant to the alternative plan proposed and during the continued suspension, outlined in paragraph 18 of the attached Order. In addition, carriers must make either calling cards or prepaid (debit) cards available to TRS users. TRS providers and/or carriers must also implement programs to educate TRS users about these alternative payment methods.

The Bureau also required that Petitioners work with any other interested parties that wish to participate, to prepare and file a joint status report with the Commission on August 26, 1996 (twelve month status report) and February 26, 1997 (eighteen month status report).

The twelve month status report must address the following issues: (1) Implementation and effectiveness of the alternative payment methods, i.e., free local calling, and calling cards and/or prepaid cards for toll calls; (2) implementation and effectiveness of consumer education and card distribution programs; (3) coordination with the TRS user community; and (4) identification of any problem areas and corrective actions taken or proposed.

The eighteen month status report must address issues (1) through (4) above, as well as the following: (5) technical feasibility of developing and implementing TRS coin sent-paid service; (6) estimated costs of developing and implementing TRS coin sent-paid service; (7) any significant difference, in technical feasibility or cost, between the provision of TRS coin sent-paid service for local calls and the provision of such service for toll calls; (8) data on call volume and payment methods for TRS and non-TRS payphone calls, including, to the extent feasible, data on both local and long distance calls; and (9) to the extent not provided in response to item (8) above, data indicating long term trends in the demand for coin sent-paid service.

OMB Approval Number: 3060-0003.

Title: Application for Amateur Operator/Primary Station License.

Form No.: FCC 610.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Individuals or households.

Number of Respondents: 93,000.

Estimated Time Per Response: 10 minutes.

Total Annual Burden: 15,438.

Needs and Uses: FCC Rules require that applicants file the FCC 610 to apply for a new, renewed or modified license. The form is required by the Communications of 1934 as amended.

The form is being revised to include a space for applicants to provide an internet address and newly implemented antenna registration numbers. No other changes are being proposed to this form.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Notice of Agency Sunshine Act Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b), notice is hereby given that at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, July 9, 1996, the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation met in closed session to consider the following matters:

Matters relating to the Corporation's corporate and supervisory activities.

Matters relating to the probable failure of an insured depository institution.

In calling the meeting, the Board determined, on motion of Director Joseph H. Neely (Appointive), seconded by Jonathan L. Fiechter (Acting Director, Office of Thrift Supervision), concurred in by Vice Chairman Andrew C. Hove, Jr. and Ms. Julie Williams, acting in the place and stead of Director Eugene A. Ludwig (Comptroller of the Currency), that Corporation business required its consideration of the matters on less than seven days' notice to the public; that no earlier notice of the meeting was practicable; that the public interest did not require consideration of the matters in a meeting open to public observation; and that the matters could be considered in a closed meeting by authority of subsections (c)(2), (c)(4), (c)(6), (c)(8), (c)(9)(A)(ii), (c)(9)(B), and (c)(10) of the "Government in the Sunshine Act" (5 U.S.C. 552b (c)(2), (c)(4), (c)(6), (c)(8), (c)(9)(A)(ii), (c)(9)(B), and (c)(10)).

The meeting was held in the Board Room of the FDIC Building located at 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC.

Dated: July 9, 1996.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Valerie J. Best,

Assistant Executive Secretary.

BILLING CODE 6714-01-M

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEMFormations of, Acquisitions by, and Mergers of Bank Holding Companies

The companies listed in this notice have applied to the Board for approval, pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) (BHC Act), Regulation Y (12 CFR Part 225), and all other applicable statutes and regulations to become a bank holding company and/or to acquire the assets or the ownership of, control of, or the power to vote shares of a bank or bank holding company and all of the banks and nonbanking companies owned by the bank holding company, including the companies listed below.

The applications listed below, as well as other related filings required by the Board, are available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the standards enumerated in the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)). If the proposal also involves the acquisition of a nonbanking company, the review also includes whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company complies with the standards in section 4 of the BHC Act, including whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices" (12 U.S.C. 1843). Any request for a hearing must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal. Unless otherwise noted, nonbanking activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding each of these applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than August 8, 1996.

BILLING CODE 6210-01-F

Notice of Proposals to Engage in Permissible Nonbanking Activities or to Acquire Companies that are Engaged in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The company listed in this notice has given notice under section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843) (BHC Act) and Regulation Y, (12 CFR Part 225) to engage de novo, or to acquire or control voting securities or assets of a company that engages either directly or through a subsidiary or other company, in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.25) or that the Board has determined by Order to be closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, these activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

The notice is available for inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the notice has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether the proposal complies with the standards of section 4 of the BHC Act, including whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices" (12 U.S.C. 1843). Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding the application must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than July 29, 1996.
