Description: This information collection (FFIEC 001 and FFIEC 006) is mandatory: 12 U.S.C. 161 and 1817 (for national banks), 12 U.S.C. 1464, 1725, 1730 (for thrift institutions), 12 U.S.C. 248(a) and 1844(c) (for state member banks and bank holding companies), and 12 U.S.C. 1817 (for insured state nonmember commercial and savings banks). The FFIEC 006, collected by the OCC and the Board, is given confidential treatment [5 U.S.C. 552(b)(8)]. Small businesses (i.e., small banks) are affected.

Abstract: These interagency reports collect information on fiduciary asset totals and activities. They are used to monitor changes in the volume and character of discretionary trust activity, the volume of nondiscretionary trust activity, and the resource needs for supervisory purposes. The data are also used for statistical and analytical purposes.

Current Actions: The revisions to the FFIEC 001 consist of the addition of a new trust income statement that must be completed by those banks and savings associations with $100 million or more in total trust assets and by all nondeposit trust companies. In general, institutions will report trust fees by type of trust account, three general categories of expense, and the amount of settlements, surcharges, and other losses gross and net of recoveries. If an institution's aggregate losses are $100,000 or more in any year, individual losses of $10,000 or more must be reported by type of account. The information reported by individual institutions in this schedule will not be publicly available, but aggregate data will be published by the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC). The new trust income schedule enables the Agencies to better target their supervision of trust activities to those areas that pose greater risk to institutions. The proposed new schedule would become effective with the December 31, 1996, report date.

On June 30, 1995, the FFIEC, on behalf of the agencies, published a notice in the Federal Register (60 FR 34252) describing in detail and inviting comment on the proposed changes to this collection of information. All comments received by the agencies in response to that notice were addressed in supporting statements developed to justify the changes.

Additionally, the submission requests renewal, without change, of the FFIEC 006.

This notice provides the public with the opportunity to obtain, review, and comment on, the agencies' supporting statements.
