Notice of Lodging of Settlement Agreement Pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act

Notice is hereby given that a proposed settlement agreement in the bankruptcy proceeding entitled In re M&V Electroplating Corp., Chapter 11 Case No. 95-12868-CJK (Bankr. D. Mass.), was lodged on October 11, 1996, with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts. The proposed settlement agreement resolves claims filed by the United States in an Application of the United States for Reimbursement of Administrative Expenses alleging that M&V Electroplating Corporation ("M&V") is liable (1) pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., for costs incurred by the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") in connection with a removal action taken by EPA at the facility located at 5 Greenleaf Street, Newburyport, Massachusetts ("Greenleaf Facility"), where M&V formerly operated an electroplating business, and (2) pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA"), 42 U.S.C. 6901 et seq., for penalties in connection with violations of RCRA discovered by EPA during inspections of the M&V facility located at 4 Perkins Way, Newburyport, Massachusetts ("Perkins Way Facility") on January 26, 1996 and February 8, 1996. Under the proposed settlement agreement, M&V will pay the United States, over a period of eight years, $192,820 with respect to the CERCLA claim, including 6% interest on $38,564 of this amount, and $26,591 with respect to the RCRA claim, including 6% interest on $5,318 of this amount. M&V's CERCLA obligation will be reduced to the extent that the United States receives proceeds from the sale of Greenleaf Facility pursuant to a separate settlement that the United States has entered into with Joyce Vigeant, the owner of the Greenleaf Facility, in United States v. Vigeant, No. (D. Mass.).

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed settlement agreement. Any comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC, 20530, and should refer to In re M&V Electroplating Corp., Case No. 95-12868-CJK (Bankr. D. Mass.), DOJ Ref. Number 90-11-2-945C.

The proposed settlement agreement may be examined at EPA Region 1, One Congress Street, Boston, Massachusetts (contact Amelia Katzen, 617-565-1133); and the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, NW., 4th Floor, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 624-0892. A copy of the proposed settlement agreement may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, NW., 4th Floor, Washington, DC 20005. In requesting a copy, please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $6.25 (25 cents per page reproduction costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library.

Notice of Lodging of Consent Judgment Under the Clean Water Act

In accordance with Department Policy, 28 C.F.R. 50.7, notice is hereby given that a Consent Decree in United States v. The Telluride Company, Civil No. 93-K-2181 (D. Colo.), was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Colorado on October 15, 1996.

The Consent Decree concerns alleged violations of section 301(a) of the clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. 1311(a), resulting from The Telluride Company's unauthorized filling of over 46 acres of rare alpine wetlands as part of its mountain resort development near Telluride, San Miguel County, Colorado. As part of the Consent Decree, The Telluride Company will be required to pay a civil penalty of $1.1 million dollars and to implement a 16-acre restoration project to the satisfaction of the Environmental Protection Agency. Defendants will abide by a site-wide management plan for the continued protection and preservation of the remaining wetlands that they own. The Consent Decree preserves the United States' right to appeal an earlier ruling of the Court. If the appeal is successful, The Telluride Company will be obligated to perform an additional 15 acres of wetland restoration along the San Miguel River and pay an additional civil penalty of $50,000.

The Department of Justice will receive written comments relating to the proposed Consent Decree for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to Robert H. Foster, United States Department of Justice, Environment & Natural Resources Division, Environmental Defense Section, 999 18th Street, Suite 945, Denver, CO 80202, should refer to United States v. The Telluride Company, Civil No. 93-K-2181 (D. Colo.), and should also make reference to DJ #90-5-1-4-293.

The Consent Judgment may be examined at the Clerk's Office, United States District Court for the District of Colorado, 1929 Stout Street, Denver, CO 80295.

Notice of Lodging of Partial Consent Decrees Pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that two proposed Partial Consent Decrees in United States v. Kenneth L. Thomas et al., Civil Action No. 93-4098-JLF (S.D. Ill.) entered into by the United States and a number of defendants and third-party defendants, were lodged on October 10, 1996, with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois. The proposed Partial Consent Decrees resolve certain claims of the United States under Section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9607, with respect to the M.T. Richards, Inc. Site ("Site") in Crossville, Illinois.

Under the terms of the first Partial Consent Decree ("Group Decree"), a group which includes defendants ANR Pipeline Company, Commonwealth Aluminum Corporation and Atlantic Richfield Company, and a number of third-party defendants (collectively, the Settling Defendants"), as well as the U.S. Army and the U.S. Air Force (on behalf of the Kentucky Air National Guard) (collectively, the "Settling Federal Agencies") shall pay the United States a total of $680,740, plus interest as specified in the Partial Consent Decree, in return for the United States' covenant not to sue for past response costs incurred at the Site.

The second Partial Consent Decree with defendant Kentucky Petroleum Recycling, Inc. ("KPR Decree") requires KPR to pay the United States $25,000, plus interest as specified in the Partial Consent Decree, in return for the United States' covenant not to sue KPR for past response costs incurred at the Site.

The Department of Justice will receive comments relating to the proposed Partial Consent Decrees for 30 days following publication of this Notice. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, United States Department of Justice, P.O. Box 7611, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, D.C. 20044-7611, and should refer to United States v. Kenneth L. Thomas et al., D.J. Ref. No.

90-11-3-1112. Both proposed Partial Consent Decrees may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Illinois, IL-S USA, Suite 300, 9 Executive Drive, Fairview Heights, Illinois 62208; the Region V Office of the United States Environmental Protection Agency, 77 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois 60604; and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005, telephone no. (202) 624-0892. A copy of either, or both, proposed Partial Consent Decrees may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. In requesting a copy, please specify which Partial Consent Decree is desired, and enclose a check (25 cents per page for reproduction costs) in the amount of $22.00 for the Group Decree, and/or a check in the amount of $6.25 for the KPR Decree, payable to the Consent Decree Library.

Bruce S. Gelber,

Deputy Chief, Environmental Enforcement
Section, Environment and Natural Resources Division.

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as Amended

Notice is hereby given that a proposed consent decree in the action entitled United States v. Vigeant, Civil Action No. 96-11986NG (D. Mass.), was lodged on October 4, 1996, with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. The proposed consent decree resolves the United States' claims under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA"), for response costs incurred by EPA in connection with a removal action taken at a facility located 5 Greenleaf Street, Newburyport, Massachusetts ("Facility"), which is owned by defendant Joyce Vigeant ("Vigeant"). Under the proposed consent decree, Vigeant has agreed to make best efforts to sell the Facility and, at the time of the closing of the sale, to direct the closing agent to pay to EPA the net proceeds from the sale, up to the amount of the outstanding obligation of M&V Electroplating Corporation ("M&V") pursuant to a separate settlement agreement ("M&V Agreement") entered into by M&V and the United States in a bankruptcy proceeding entitled In re M&V Electroplating Corp., Chapter 11 Case No. 95-12868-CJK (Bankr. D. Mass.). M&V, which operated an electroplating business at the Facility, has agreed to pay EPA $192,820, plus 6% simple interest on $38,564 of this amount, over a period of eight years. The payment made to the United States from the proceeds of the sale of the Facility will reduce the obligation of M&V by the amount of the payment.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed consent decree. Any comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, and should refer to United States v. Vigeant, DOJ Ref. Number 90-11-2-945D.

The proposed consent decree may be examined at EPA Region 1, One Congress Street, Boston, Massachusetts (contact Amelia Katzen, 617-565-1133); and the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005, (202) 624-0892. A copy of the proposed consent decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. In requesting a copy, please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $8.00 (25 cents per page reproduction costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library.
