National Park Service

Extension of Time Requested for Decision From OMB

AGENCY: Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Big Cypress National Preserve.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: On October 25, 1996, the National Park Service published a Notice and Request for Comments in the Federal Register (F.R. 61(208): 55313-55314) stating that the National Park Service (NPS) and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University propose to conduct a survey of the current amount and distribution of Off-Road Vehicle

(ORV) use within the Big Cypress National Preserve. The goal is to learn about this use with respect to vehicle type, recreation activity type, and management unit location of use. Results will be used by park planners, park managers, and members of the public in considering alternative ORV management options.

Under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and 5 CFR Part 1320, Reporting and Record Keeping Requirements, the NPS in the October 25 Federal Register notice stated that it was requesting OMB to process the Information Collection Request (ICR) under the emergency processing provision by November 15, 1996 and that it was inviting public comment on the Proposed ICR for thirty days from the date of publication of the October 25 Federal Register notice.

In this notice, the NPS is reporting that it has amended its request to OMB to process this ICR under the emergency processing provision by requesting a decision date of no later than November 25, 1996. This revised decision date closely coincides with the published 30 day period during which the NPS accepted public comments about the proposed ICR.

Notice of Intent to Repatriate a Cultural Item from Alaska in the Possession of the Denver Museum of Natural History, Denver, CO

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.
ACTION: Notice.

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act of 1990 of the intent to repatriate a cultural item in the possession of the Denver Museum of Natural History, Denver, CO, that meets the definition of "cultural patrimony" under section 2 of the act.

The hat is of circular wooden construction, eighteen inches in diameter at the lower rim and seven inches high at the crown. It is decorated with paint, hair, cowrie and abalone shells. A separate wooden crest, nine inches in height, is attached to the top of the hat. The hat with the crest and the carving on the face of it looks like a Northwest Pacific Coast representation of a Killerwhale.

The hat was sold by Annie Jacobs to Michael R. Johnson in January 1974. The hat was purchased by Francis V. and Mary W. A. Crane in 1975 and donated to the Denver Museum of Natural History in 1976.

Evidence provided by the Jacobs Family of the Dakla'aweidi clan and additional information provided by the Dakla'aweidi clan through the Central Council of the Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska identifies the hat as a Killerwhale Clan hat (Keet S'aaxw) of the Dakla'aweidi Killerwhale House. They further state that the hat is an object of cultural patrimony with ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance to the Tlingit people. Lastly, they assert that no individual has the legal right to alienate this clan hat and that sale of the hat to Mr. Johnson was done without the approval of the clan.

Officials of the Denver Museum of Natural History have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(D), this cultural item has ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the culture itself, and could not have been alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual. Officials of the Denver Museum of Natural History have also determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (2), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between this item and the Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska acting on behalf of the Dakla'aweidi Clan.

Copies of this notice have been sent to the Central Council of the Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska and of the Dakla'aweidi Clan. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with this object should contact Dr. Robert B. Pickering, Department of Anthropology, Denver Museum of Natural History, 2001 Colorado Blvd., Denver, CO 80205-5798, telephone: (303) 370-6492, FAX (303) 331-6492, email rpick@csn.org before December 27, 1996. Repatriation of the object to the Central Council of the Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska on behalf of the Dakla'aweidi Clan, may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: November 21, 1996
Richard C. Waldbauer,
Acting, Departmental Consulting Archeologist,
Acting Manager, Archeology and Ethnography Program.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The San Francisco Bay/Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Estuary (Bay-Delta system) is a critically important part of California's natural environment and economy. In recognition of the serious problems facing the region and the complex resource management decisions that must be made, the state of California and the Federal government are working together to stabilize, protect, restore, and enhance the Bay-Delta system. The State and Federal agencies with management and regulatory responsibilities in the Bay-Delta system are working together as CALFED to provide policy direction and oversight for the process.

One area of Bay-Delta management includes the establishment of a joint State-Federal process to develop long-term solutions to problems in the Bay-Delta system related to fish and wildlife, water supply reliability, natural disasters, and water quality. The intent is to develop a comprehensive and balanced plan which addresses all of the resource problems. This effort, the CALFED Bay-Delta Program (Program), is being carried out under the policy direction of CALFED. The CALFED Bay-Delta Program is exploring and developing a long-term solution for a cooperative planning process that will determine the most appropriate strategy and actions necessary to improve water quality, restore health to the Bay-Delta ecosystem, provide for a variety of beneficial uses, and minimize Bay-Delta system vulnerability.
