

SUMMARY: On November 7, 1994, the Department of Commerce revoked the finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from Finland pursuant to an order of the United States Court of International Trade ("CIT") in Kemira Fibres Oy v. United States, 861 F. Supp. 144 (CIT 1994). In Kemira, the CIT ruled that the Department was required to revoke the finding because no interested party filed a request for administrative review for this finding or objected to the finding's revocation by March 31, 1993, notwithstanding the Department's failure to issue timely notice of intent to revoke. The Department appealed the Court's order and, on August 2, 1995, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit ("Federal Circuit") overturned the CIT order. Therefore, we are now rescinding the revocation of the fiber finding and instructing the U.S. Customs Service to suspend liquidation of entries of fiber from Finland.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 22, 1996.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 8, 1994, the CIT ruled that the Department was required to revoke the antidumping finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from Finland, terminate the ongoing administrative review and end the suspension of liquidation of the subject merchandise pursuant to 19 C.F.R. § 353.25(d)(4). See Kemira Fibres Oy v. United States, 861 F. Supp. 144 (CIT 1994). The Court stated that the Department was required to revoke the finding because no interested party filed a request for an administrative review or objected to revocation by the last day of the fifth anniversary month, notwithstanding the Department's failure to issue timely notice of intent to revoke.

In compliance with the CIT's ruling, the Department revoked the antidumping duty finding on November 7, 1994, terminated the 1993-94 administrative review and ended the suspension of liquidation on all entries of the subject merchandise. See Viscose Rayon Staple Fiber From Finland; Termination of Administrative Review and Revocation of Antidumping Finding, 59 FR 55441 (Nov. 7, 1994). The Department took these actions, rather than suspend liquidation of the subject merchandise during the pendency of appeal, because the CIT decision was issued pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1581(i), the Court's residual jurisdiction authority, rather than pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1516a, the Court's general jurisdictional authority.

In the subsequent appeal, the Federal Circuit found the Department's interpretation of 19 C.F.R. § 353.25(d)(4) (i.e., that notice of intent to revoke is a prerequisite to revocation of an antidumping order or finding) to be reasonable. Therefore, the Federal Circuit reversed the CIT's order and opinion and remanded for further proceedings consistent with its decision. See Kemira Fibres Oy v. United States, 61 F.3d 866 (Fed. Cir. 1995).

On November 13, 1995, the CIT vacated its earlier decision and declaratory judgment of September 8, 1994 and instructed the Department to proceed with further proceedings consistent with the Federal Circuit's opinion.

Thus, consistent with the Federal Circuit's decision, the Department hereby rescinds the revocation of the antidumping duty finding on viscose rayon staple fiber from Finland, published at 44 FR 17156 (Mar. 21, 1979). Further, the Department is directing the U.S. Customs Service to suspend liquidation and require a cash deposit in the amount of 0.00 percent ad valorem, the last published deposit rate, for each entry of the subject merchandise from Finland which is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, on or after the date of publication of this notice.

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
