Title of Proposal: Campus of Learners Semi-Annual Report.

OMB Control Number: 2577-.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use: Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) that were designated to participate in the Campus of Learners (COL) program will report semi-annually on the program. The COL program provides residents with education, job training, and employment opportunities involving computer and telecommunications technology through a college campus-style setting. The report will provide HUD with information on the number of families included in COL, Federal dollars supporting COL, number of residents in classes/training and other opportunities made available to residents. The information will enable HUD to ensure that Federal dollars for this program are spent according to the PHA's strategic plan.

Agency form numbers: HUD-52350.

Members of affected public: PHAs.

Estimation of the total number of hours needed to prepare the information collection including number of respondents, frequency of response, and hours of response: On a semi-annual basis, 25 respondents, two responses per respondent, 50 total responses, 1800 total burden hours.

Status of the proposed information collection: New.

Authority: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended.

Dated: March 4, 1997.

Issues, Comments, Waivers, Additional Remarks:

Under the Campus of Learners (COL) initiative, HUD will designate 5 to 20 sites at which public housing authorities (PHAs) prepare creative strategic plans to provide residents with education, job training, and employment opportunities involving computer and telecommunications technology through a college campus-style setting.

This initiative is designed to transform public housing into safe and livable communities where families undertake training in new telecommunications and computer technology and partake in education opportunities and job training initiatives with local businesses.

Responses to this collection of information are voluntary.

The information requested does not lend itself to confidentiality.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 36 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the Reports Management Officer, Paperwork Reduction Project (2577-0207), Office of Information Technology, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, D.C. 20410-3600. This agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection information unless that collection displays a valid OMB control number.

Do not send this form to the above address.

Freedom of Information Act: Semi-Annual reports submitted are subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). To assist HUD in determining whether to release information contained in the report in the event a FOIA request is received, the recipient may, through clear earmarking or otherwise, indicate those portions of its report that it believes should not be disclosed. The recipient's views will be used solely to aid HUD in preparing its response to a FOIA request; HUD is required by the FOIA to make an independent evaluation of the information. HUD suggests that the recipient provide as basis, when possible, for its belief that confidential treatment is appropriate; general assertions or blanket requests for confidentiality, without more information, are of limited value to HUD in making determinations concerning the release of information under FOIA. HUD is required to segregate disclosable information from non-disclosable items, so an applicant should be careful to identify each portion of the application for which confidential treatment is requested. HUD emphasizes that the presence or absence of comments or earmarking regarding confidential information will have no bearing on the evaluation of reports submitted in response to this solicitation.

Notice of Submission of Proposed Information Collection to OMB

Title of Proposal: Measuring Quality of Life, Health, and Well-Being in Different Housing Environments.

Office: Policy Development and Research.

OMB Approval Number: None.

Description of the Need for the Information and its Proposed Use: With the reinvention of the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the restructuring of many HUD programs, it has become increasingly important to understand why certain housing developments "work" and others do not. This information collection will be used to survey the quality of life, health, and well-being in different housing environments. HUD will use the data to identify the indicators and measures that would be best used for comparison of cross-program and cross-border (Canada). The survey is being conducted by HUD and the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

Form Number: None.

Respondents: Individuals or Households.

Frequency of Submission: One-Time.
Reporting Burden:
