BILLING CODE 4310-70-F

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-767
(Preliminary)]

Ultra High Temperature Milk From Canada

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Institution of antidumping investigation and scheduling of a preliminary phase investigation.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the institution of an investigation and commencement of preliminary phase antidumping investigation No. 731-TA-767 (Preliminary) under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)) (the Act) to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from Canada of ultra high temperature milk, provided for in subheadings 0401.20.20 and 0401.20.40 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value. Unless the Department of Commerce extends the time for initiation pursuant to section 732(c)(1)(B) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1673a(c)(1)(B)), the Commission must reach a preliminary determination in antidumping investigations in 45 days, or in this case by May 1, 1997. The Commission's views are due at the Department of Commerce within five business days thereafter, or by May 8, 1997.

For further information concerning the conduct of this investigation and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A through E (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 207), as amended in 61 FR 37818 (July 22, 1996).

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 17, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Brad
Hudgens (202-205-3189), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired persons can obtain information on this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov> or <ftp://ftp.usitc.gov>).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background—This investigation is being instituted in response to a petition filed on March 17, 1997, by Industria Lechera de Puerto Rico, Inc., San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Participation in the investigation and public service list—Persons (other than petitioners) wishing to participate in the investigation as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in §§ 201.11 and 207.10 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Industrial users and (if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level) representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to this investigation upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list—Pursuant to § 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in this investigation available to authorized applicants representing interested parties (as defined in 19 U.S.C. 1677(9)) who are parties to the investigation under the APO issued in the investigation, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO.

Conference—The Commission's Director of Operations has scheduled a conference in connection with this investigation for 9:30 a.m. on April 7, 1997, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC. Parties wishing to participate in the conference should contact Brad Hudgens (202-205-3189) not later than April 3, 1997, to arrange for their appearance. Parties in support of the imposition of antidumping duties in this investigation and parties in opposition to the imposition of such duties will each be collectively allocated one hour within which to make an oral presentation at the conference. A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to present a short statement at the conference.

Written submissions—As provided in §§ 201.8 and 207.15 of the Commission's rules, any person may submit to the Commission on or before April 10, 1997, a written brief containing information and arguments pertinent to the subject matter of the investigation. Parties may file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the conference no later than three days before the conference. If briefs or written testimony contain BPI, they must conform with the requirements of §§ 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules.

In accordance with §§ 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigation must be served on all other parties to the investigation (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: This investigation is being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to § 207.12 of the Commission's rules.

Issued: March 21, 1997.

By order of the Commission.

Donna R. Koehnke,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 4410-02-M

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Justice Management Division, DOJ.

ACTION: Notice of information collection under emergency review; U.S. Department of Justice and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Application for Funds under the Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program.

The Department of Justice (DOJ), Justice Management Division has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the emergency review procedures of the paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This notice serves the following two purposes:

A. Notification of the public on the requirement necessary to apply for Federal funding under the Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program.

B. Compliance with the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

A. Notification to the Public on the Requirements Necessary To Apply for Federal Funding Under the Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program

All proposals must be received on or before April 25, 1997. All proposals must be submitted to the Office of Inspector General, Attention: John E. Hartwig, Deputy Inspector General for Investigations, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Room 5250 Cohen Building, 330 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20201.

Background

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 added Section 1128C to the Social Security Act, which directs the Attorney General and the Secretary of HHS, acting through the HHS Inspector General, to establish a National Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program to achieve the goals of: (1) Coordinating Federal, State and local law enforcement program to control fraud and abuse with respect to health plans; (2) conducting investigations, audits, evaluations and inspections relating to the delivery of and payment for health care in the United States; (3) facilitating enforcement of civil, criminal and administrative statutes applicable to health care fraud and abuse; (4) providing industry guidance relating to fraudulent health care practices; and (5) establishing a national data bank to receive and report final adverse actions against health care providers. In accordance with the statute, the Attorney General and the Secretary developed Guidelines for Implementation of the Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program.

To fund the coordinating anti-fraud effort, the statute directs that an amount equalling recoveries derived from health care cases—including civil monetary penalties, fines, forfeitures, and damages assessed in criminal, civil or administrative health care cases, but excluding restitution due to the victim, funds awarded to a relator, or as otherwise authorized by law—be transferred to the Federal Hospital Insurance Trust Fund. Monies are appropriated from the Trust Fund to a newly created expenditure account, called the Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Account in amounts that the Secretary and Attorney General annually certify are necessary to finance the administration and operation of the Fraud and Abuse Control Program.

The purpose of this Notice is to solicit proposals from those Federal, State and local agencies that are currently involved in health care fraud and abuse control (other than the Departments of Justice and Health and Human Services) for projects or activities that promote the objectives of the Fraud and Abuse Control Program to be supported with these funds. This action is authorized under 42 U.S.C. 1320 a-7 and 42 U.S.C. 1395 b-1.

Availability of Funds

Approximately $3.5 million will be available in Fiscal Year 1997 to support approved proposals. Funds may be used to cover costs (including equipment,
