J.R. Simplot Co., Heyburn, Idaho; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

On June 30, 1997, the Department, on its own motion, reviewed the negative determination regarding the petition for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce frozen potato products.

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination issued on May 22, 1997, because criterion (3) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended was not met. A survey of major declining customers revealed that none of the respondents increased their purchases frozen potato products while decreasing their purchases from the subject firm. The denial notice was published in the Federal Register on June 13, 1997 (62 FR 32376).

A late response to the survey conducted by the Department revealed that a customer of the subject firm increased import purchases of frozen processed potato products during the relevant time period.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with frozen processed potato products, contributed importantly to the declines in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of J.R. Simplot Company, Heyburn, Idaho. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of J.R. Simplot Company, Heyburn, Idaho, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 6, 1996, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 10th day of July 1997.

Curtis K. Kooser,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination issued on May 22, 1997, because criteria (3) and (4) of paragraph (a)(1) of section 250 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, were not met. There was no shift of production from the Heyburn, Idaho plant to Canada or Mexico, nor did J.R. Simplot import frozen potato products.
