Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Acting Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination on the date of which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later October 24, 1997.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than October 24, 1997.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 22nd day of September, 1997.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 29, 1997, applicable to all workers of The Lovable Company, Buford, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 4, 1997 (62 FR 46775).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that all workers will be separated at The Lovable Company's various outlet stores when they close in September, 1997. The workers provide retail selling of ladies' undergarments that are manufactured by The Lovable's production facilities.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of The Lovable Company adversely affected by increased imports of ladies' undergarments.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-33,584 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of The Lovable Company, Buford, Georgia (TA-W-33,584); and at the various locations cited below, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 9, 1996 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974:

Norton McNaughton, Incorporated, New York, New York; Notice of Revised Determination on Reopening

On September 22, 1997, the Department, on its own motion, reopened its investigation for the former workers of the subject firm.

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination issued on June 20, 1997, because the "contributed importantly" test of the Group Eligibility Requirements of the Trade Act was not met for workers at the subject firm. The workers produce women's career and casual clothing. The denial notice was published in the Federal Register on July 18, 1997 (62 FR 38584).

Sales at Norton McNaughton, Incorporated declined from 1995 to
