

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Public Information Collection(s) Being Reviewed by the Federal Communications Commission

March 12, 1998.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burden invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collection(s), as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13. An agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) that does not display a valid control number. Comments are requested concerning (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

DATES: Written comments should be submitted on or before May 18, 1998. If you anticipate that you will be submitting comments, but find it difficult to do so within the period of time allowed by this notice, you should advise the contact listed below as soon as possible.

ADDRESSES: Direct all comments to Judy Boley, Federal Communications Commission, Room 234, 1919 M St., N.W., Washington, DC 20554 or via internet to jboley@fcc.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For additional information or copies of the information collection(s), contact Judy Boley at 202-418-0214 or via internet at jboley@fcc.gov.

Needs and Uses: The Commission requests this collection of information to gather the information needed to recommend to the United States Department of State whether or not to designate persons requesting it recognized private operating agency (RPOA) status. The United States does not require anyone to obtain RPOA status but has created a voluntary process by which companies who believe it would be helpful in persuading foreign telecommunications operators to deal with them can obtain such a designation. RPOA status also permits companies to join the Telecommunications Sector of the International Telecommunications Union Formal (ITU), the standards-setting body of the ITU. Formal recognition of RPOA status is required by the ITU for companies desiring the ITU to grant them international free phone numbers.

Without this information the government cannot represent to other nations that the United States enhanced-service providers will obey international regulations.

Federal Communications Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Office of the Secretary

Office of Minority Health; Availability of Funds for Grants for the Bilingual/ Bicultural Service Demonstration Grant Program

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Office of Public Health and Science, Office of Minority Health.

ACTION: Correction.

SUMMARY: On March 2, 1998 (63 FR 10226), OMH published a notice announcing the Availability of Funds for Grants for the Bilingual/Bicultural Service Demonstration Grant Program. This notice corrects the application receipt date which appeared in that notice, FR Doc. 98-5233, on page 10227. Under the Deadline Section in the second column, it stated that "grant applications must be received by the OMH Grants Management Office 60 days after date of publication or by April 13, 1998." This is corrected to read "grant applications must be received by the OMH Grants Management Office by May 1, 1998."

Dated: March 12, 1998.
