Proposal to approve under OMB delegated authority the extension for three years, without revision, of the following report:

1. Report title: Ongoing Intermittent Survey of Households

Agency form number: FR 3016

OMB control number: 7100-0150

Frequency: on occasion

Reporters: households and individuals

Annual reporting hours: 130 burden hours

Estimated average minutes per response: 3.12 minutes

Number of respondents: 500

Small businesses are not affected.

General description of report: This information collection is voluntary (12 U.S.C. 225a, 263, and 15 U.S.C. 1691b) and is given confidential treatment pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6)).

Abstract: The Federal Reserve uses this voluntary survey to obtain household-based information specifically tailored to the Federal Reserve's policy, regulatory, and operational responsibilities, and the survey is necessary to provide information on developing events in the financial markets. Intermittently, on request, the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center includes survey questions on behalf of the Federal Reserve in an addendum to their regular monthly Survey of Consumer Attitudes and Expectations. The frequency and content of the questions depends on changing economic and legal developments.

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

Cost Accounting Standards Board Review Panel; Notice of Web Page

The Cost Accounting Standards Board (CASB) Review Panel was established in March 1998 to study, analyze, and assess the mission of the CASB in light of recent federal acquisition reforms. Formed at the request of Congress, the panel includes members from government, industry, and the accounting profession. It is anticipated that the panel will conclude its studies, analyses, and deliberations by the end of the current year and issue a report with recommendations to the Congress in early 1999.

In conducting its work, the panel is seeking to obtain broad input from all interested parties including those in the government contracting community, academia, the accounting profession, and industry. At this time, the panel is seeking general comments on what are the most pertinent issues the panel should address regarding the CASB's mission in light of acquisition reform, its current structure, composition and membership, and the CASB's staff resources. As the panel proceeds with its work and focuses its attention on more specific issues, additional public comments on those issues will be solicited. Individuals interested in submitting comments to the panel can do so by visiting the CASB Review Panel's web page at <http://www.gao.gov> or can leave recorded messages at (202) 512-4501.

Administration on Aging

[Program Announcement No. AoA-98-5]

Fiscal Year 1998 Program Announcement; Availability of Funds and Notice Regarding Applications

AGENCY: Administration on Aging, HHS.

ACTION: Announcement of availability of funds and request for applications to carry out model Pension Information and Counseling Projects whose purpose is to demonstrate innovative and effective means for ensuring that those older Americans eligible for pension benefits have the requisite knowledge, information, and counseling to exercise fully their rights and entitlements.

SUMMARY: The Administration on Aging (AoA) announces that under this program announcement it will hold a competition for grant awards for three (3) to five (5) projects. Since 1993, the AoA has supported several model pension information and counseling projects at various sites throughout the country. This program announcement is designed to build on that effort by extending the opportunity for program innovation in pension counseling and information dissemination to other regions of the country.

The deadline date for the submission of applications is June 21, 1998. As provided by Title IV, Section 429 of the Older Americans Act, eligibility for grant awards is limited to state and area agencies on aging and to nonprofit organizations with proven experience in the counseling of older persons regarding retirement benefits and pension rights.

Application kits are available by writing to the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration on Aging, Office of Program Operations and Development, 330 Independence Avenue, SW., Room 4270, Washington, DC 20201, or by calling 202/619-0011.

Dated: April 15, 1998.
