

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORNational Park Service*Notice of Intent to Repatriate a Cultural Item from New Mexico in the Possession of the Museum of Northern Arizona, Flagstaff, AZ

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 43 CFR 10.10 (a)(3), of the intent to repatriate a cultural item from New Mexico in the possession of the Museum of Northern Arizona which meets the definition of "sacred object" under Section 2 of the Act.

The cultural item is a Navajo Male and Female Shooting Way Chant bundle.

In 1968, this bundle was donated to the Museum of Northern Arizona by an individual whose name is withheld at the Museum of Northern Arizona's request. According to museum documentation, this individual had acquired this bundle sometime earlier from a "chanter from Clearwater" (near Farmington, NM).

Museum documentation and consultation with representatives of the Navajo Nation clearly establish that this bundle is a product of Navajo culture. Representatives of the Navajo Nation have also indicated that this bundle is needed by traditional religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religion by their present-day adherents.

Based on the above-mentioned information, officials of the Museum of Northern Arizona have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(3), this cultural item is a specific ceremonial object needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the Museum of Northern Arizona have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between this item and the Navajo Nation.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Navajo Nation. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these objects should contact David R. Wilcox, NAGPRA Coordinator, Museum of Northern Arizona, 3101 North Fort Valley Rd., Flagstaff, AZ 86001; telephone (520) 774-5211, ext. 244 before July 2, 1998. Repatriation of this object to the Navajo Nation may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: May 27, 1998.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORNational Park Service*Notice of Inventory Completion for Native American Human Remains from Port Huron, MI in the Possession of the Port Huron Museum, Port Huron, MI

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is hereby given in accordance with provisions of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 43 CFR 10.9, of the completion of an inventory of human remains in the possession of the Port Huron Museum, Port Huron, MI.

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by Port Huron Museum professional staff in consultation with representatives of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan; and the Walpole Island First Nation, ONT, Canada.

In 1971, human remains representing one individual were recovered from Lakeside Beach on Lake Huron (north of Port Huron) by an unknown individual and donated to the Port Huron Museum in 1972. No known individual was identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

Based on the location of the remains and the state of preservation, this individual has been determined to be Native American. In 1985, the Port Huron Museum deaccessioned all Native American human remains in its collections and turned them over to a representative of the Walpole Island First Nation. Although included in the 1985 deaccessioning, the human remains noted above were accidentally overlooked and discovered in the Museum's collections in 1998.

The human remains listed above constitute newly-found items from a previously repatriated collection. Because the previous repatriated collection was returned prior to the enactment of NAGPRA, this notice is being published to document the return of human remains as part of an action on a repatriation request pending on the date of NAGPRA's enactment. As the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan and the Walpole Island First Nation communities are culturally related and working in cooperation regarding repatriation activities, this pending repatriation request will now involve the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the Port Huron Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains listed above represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry. Officials of the Port Huron Museum have not determined the cultural affiliation of these Native American human remains because, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3009 (2), these human remains are part of an action on a repatriation request pending on the date of enactment of NAGPRA and will therefore be repatriated to the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan and Walpole Island First Nation of Canada. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes it may have an interest in these human remains should contact Stephen R. Williams, Director, Port Huron Museum, 1115 Sixth Street, Port Huron, MI 48060; telephone: (810) 982-0891.

Dated: May 21, 1998.
