Decision List No. 79; Week of March 30 through April 3, 1998

Appeals

David R. Berg, 4/2/98, VFA-0376

The Department of Energy denied a Privacy and Freedom of Information Acts (FOIA) Appeal filed by David R. Berg from a determination issued by the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Human Resources that certain documents relating to Mr. Berg and several co-workers were exempt from mandatory disclosure. The DOE found that the withheld material was exempt from mandatory disclosure under subsection (d)(5) of the Privacy Act and Exemption 6 of the FOIA, but that Exemptions 7(C) and 7(F) of the FOIA were inapplicable because the documents were not compiled for law enforcement purposes.

Dr. Nicolas Dominquez, 4/2/98, VFA-0368, VFA-0387, VFA-0388, VFA-0389

Dr. Nicolas Dominguez appealed four Determinations issued to him in response to a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The Appellant sought information concerning his termination by Lockheed Martin Energy Research Corporation (LMERC), including two memos, his job description and identifying information concerning a "group of peers" which heard testimony regarding the termination. In its Determination, the Oak Ridge Operations Office (ORO) found that all responsive documents were owned by LMERC. On appeal, the DOE rejected the argument that all records funded by the taxpayers were subject to release under the FOIA. The DOE, however, found that ORO did possess responsive agency records regarding the "group of peers," and that some of the requested documents were subject to release because they were owned by DOE. Accordingly, two of the Appeals were granted and two were denied.

Eugene Maples, 3/30/98, VFA-0382

Eugene Maples (Maples) appealed determinations issued to him by the Offices of the Inspector General (OIG) and the General Counsel (OGC). In his Appeal, Maples asserted that OIG improperly withheld, pursuant to FOIA Exemptions 6 and 7(C), names from documents relating to recoupment of Petroleum Violation Escrow (PVE) funds from the State of South Carolina. Maples also argued that OIG and OGC conducted inadequate searches for responsive documents. The DOE determined that OIG and OGC conducted adequate searches for responsive documents, but that OIG may have improperly applied Exemptions 6 and 7(C) to the withheld names. Consequently, Maples's Appeal was granted in part.

Personnel Security Hearing

Personnel Security Hearing, 4/3/98, VSO-0172

A Hearing Officer recommended that the access authorization of an individual employed by a DOE contractor not be reinstated. The individual was charged with deliberately omitting information relevant to his eligibility for access authorization from two written security questionnaire forms, making false statements during a DOE personnel security interview, and with "unusual conduct" that tended to show he was not honest, reliable or trustworthy, including violation of a DOE Drug Certification and a pattern of repeated arrests. The Hearing Officer found that the individual had mitigated some of the charges, including a number of minor inconsistencies in his statements to the local DOE security office, and his violation of the Drug Certification five years before the hearing, but had failed to mitigate the charges that he had deliberately omitted or falsified
