

(1) A 31-day pulse flow in April-May to support the VAMP that would require up to 110,000 acre-feet annually;

(2) Additional water for a fall attraction flow for salmon in October (12,500 acre-feet) from Merced Irrigation District; and

(3) Additional water from Oakdale Irrigation District (26,000 acre-feet less up to 11,000 acre-feet contributed by Oakdale to the 31-day pulse flow). This additional water would be used for such purposes as ramping around the pulse flows, temperature control, water quality, and protection of salmon redds during periods of low flow.

A total of 137,500 acre-feet of water per year could be provided, and most of this (up to 92%) is expected to come directly from surface water sources, including reservoir storage and changes in diversions and release patterns from reservoirs. Other sources of the water include groundwater, tailwater recovery, and conservation.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Justice Programs

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; Reinstatement, with change of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired; Crime Victim Compensation State Certification Form.

The Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office for Victims of Crime, has submitted the following information collection request for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This proposed Information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty (60) days" until: November 23, 1998.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information, please contact Jeffrey Kerr, 202-616-3581, U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office for Victims of Crime, 810 7th Street, NW, Washington DC 20530. Additionally, comments may be submitted via facsimile to 202-514-6383.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission or responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, with change, of a previously approved collection form for which approval has expired.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Crime Victim Compensation State Certification Form.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form: OJP 7390/5. Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) as amended and the Victim Compensation Program Guidelines to submit an annual Crime Victim Compensation Certificate Form. Information received from each program will be used to calculate the annual grant amount for the VOCA state crime victim compensation programs. The information will also be aggregated and serve as supporting documentation for the Director's biennial report to the President and Congress.

Primary: State Government. 42 U.S.C. 1921 et. seq. authorizes the Department of Justice to collect information from state governors, chief executives of the U.S. territories, and the mayor of the District of Columbia for the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) formula grant program. Other: None.

This application will be used by state and local jurisdictions to apply for federal funding which will be used to increase the number of law enforcement positions in their law enforcement agencies.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: It is estimated that 52 respondents will complete an 1-hour annual report.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total hour burden to complete the form is 52 annual burden hours.

If additional information is required contact: Mrs. Brenda E. Dyer, Deputy Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530.
