FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Privacy Act of 1974: Systems of Records

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11)), the FCC is issuing notice of our intent to amend the system of records entitled the Pay, Leave, and Travel Records—FCC/Central 1, to include new routine uses.

We invite public comment on this publication.

DATES: Written comments on the proposed amended system should be received by March 4, 1998. Office of Management and Budget, which has oversight responsibility under the Privacy Act to review the system may submit comments on or before March 16, 1998. The amended system shall be effective without further notice on March 16, 1998, unless the FCC receives comments that would require a contrary determination. As required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(o) of the Privacy Act, the FCC submitted reports on this amended system to both houses of Congress.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be mailed to Judy Boley, Privacy Act Officer, Performance Evaluation and Records Management, Room 234, FCC, 1919 M Street, NW, Washington, DC 20554. Written comments will be available for inspection at the above address between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Judy Boley, Privacy Act Officer, Performance Evaluation and Records Management, Room 234, 1919 M Street, NW, Washington, DC 20554, Telephone number, (202) 418-0214 or via internet at jboley@fcc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Pub. L. 104-193, the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, the FCC will disclose data from its Pay, Leave, and Travel Records to the Office of Child Support Enforcement, Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Database of New Hires, part of the Federal Parent Locator System (FPLS) and Federal Tax Offset System, DHHS/OCSE No. 09-90-0074. A description of the Federal Parent Locator Service may be found at 62 FR 51663 (October 2, 1997).

FPLS is a computerized network through which States may request location information from Federal and State agencies to find non-custodial parents and their employers for purposes of establishing paternity and securing support. On October 1, 1997, the FPLS was expanded to include the National Directory of New Hires, a database containing employment information on employees recently hired, quarterly wage data on private and public sector employees, and information on unemployment compensation benefits. On October 1, 1998, the FPLS will be expanded further to include a Federal Case Registry. The Federal Case Registry will contain abstracts on all participants involved in child support enforcement cases. When the Federal Case Registry is instituted, its files will be matched on an ongoing basis against the files in the National Directory of New Hires to determine if an employee is a participant in a child support case anywhere in the country. If the FPLS identifies a person as being a participant in a State child support case, that State will be notified. State requests to the FPLS for location information will also continue to be processed after October 1, 1998.

When individuals are hired by the FCC, we may disclose to the FPLS their names, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, dates of hire, and information identifying us as the employer. We also may disclose to FPLS names, social security numbers, and quarterly earnings of each FCC employee, within one month of the end of the quarterly reporting period.

Information submitted by the FCC to the FPLS will be disclosed by the Office of Child Support Enforcement to the Social Security Administration for verification to ensure that the social security number provided is correct. The data disclosed by FCC to the FPLS will also be disclosed by the Office of Child Support Enforcement to the Secretary of the Treasury for use in verifying claims for the advance payment of the earned income tax credit or to verify a claim of employment on a tax return.

Accordingly, the Pay, Leave, & Travel Records system notice originally published in the Federal Register on May 18, 1992, 57 FR 21091 is amended as set forth below. Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:
