DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice No. 2904]

Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law (ACPIL) Study Group on Assignment in Receivables Financing; Request for Comment

The Department of State's Office of the Assistant Legal Adviser for Private International Law is seeking private sector comment on a proposed international convention on assignment in receivables financing (the 'Convention'). The Convention is sponsored by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), and the initial draft is the result of cooperative efforts between the United States and approximately fifty United Nations Member States.

The purpose of the Convention is to create a uniform international law on assignment in receivables financing transactions in order to facilitate the use of this type of financing arrangement internationally. While receivables financing is quite common in the United States and has defined legal parameters in the form of the Uniform Commercial Code Article 9, it is relatively new and infrequently used in some other countries, especially developing markets. One goal in negotiating the Convention is to help introduce receivables financing to more countries, in the hope that new uniform ways of extending financing and creating security interests may spur investment, increase economic growth and provide companies with additional commercial opportunities.

The Convention would cover assignments of receivables (i.e. contractual and other rights to payment) where the assignor is located in one country and the account debtor is located in another country. It would also cover assignments of receivables where the assignor and the assignee are located in different countries. The assignments addressed would include secured transactions as well as true sales and, accordingly, would impact upon asset based financing, factoring, securitization and project finance.

While the Convention is not scheduled to be finalized until mid-2000, it is important to receive comments from various industry groups now, so that there is an opportunity to address concerns and questions while the Convention is still in the developmental phase. Specifically, comments would be helpful on: (i) whether it would benefit certain industries or common industry transactions to be included or excluded from the Convention, and (ii) assuming an industry is included, what provisions would be helpful in order to best facilitate that industry's transactions.

Requests for a copy of the latest version of the Convention may be sent to Ms. Allison Gray by fax at (202) 776–8482, by phone at (202) 776–8422, or by e-mail to <pildb@his.com>. Comments on the Convention may be directed to Ms. Gray at the above numbers and email address or by mail to L/PIL, Room 357 South Building, 2430 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20037–2800.

Assistant Legal Adviser for Private International Law. [FR Doc. 98–27510 Filed 10–13–98; 8:45 am]
