DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Notice Inviting Applicants To Serve as Field Readers for the Child Care Access Means Parents in School Program

SUMMARY: The Office of Higher Education Programs (HEP) invites interested individuals to apply to serve as field readers evaluating grant applications for the Child Care Access Means Parents in School Program. The Child Care Access Means Parents in School Program is intended to increase the access of low-income parents to postsecondary education through the provision of quality, affordable child care.

Duties and Compensation of Field Readers: Field readers will review applications according to the applicable selection criteria. Each field reader will serve for a period of approximately 5 days. Each field reader who is selected will receive compensation for certain travel expenses and an honorarium.

Field Reader Qualifications: The Department is seeking experienced and knowledgeable professionals, who are current with issues regarding the provision of quality child care services and expanding access for low-income parents to attend institutions of higher education. These professionals should be familiar with issues dealing with the start-up and operation of a child care center, early childhood education, development of children between zero to three years of age, outreach to low-income families, and, in particular, child care programs in a college or university setting. Prospective field readers may include child care providers, administrators, and experts; individuals with experience in early childhood education and development of children between zero to three years of age; individuals from State agencies, institutions of higher education, and community services agencies; and individuals with experience helping low-income parents further their education. Each field reader must have the expertise necessary to accurately assess the applicant's showing on each of the applicable selection criteria.

Application Process: Any individual interested in serving as a field reader should mail or fax two copies of his or her resume to the address listed below indicating the program in which they are interested in serving as a field reader. Resumes should not exceed two pages.
