NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATIONRecords Schedules; Availability and Request for Comments

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration, Office of Records Services—Washington, DC.

ACTION: Notice of availability of proposed records schedules; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) publishes notice at least once monthly of certain Federal agency requests for records disposition authority (records schedules). Once approved by NARA, records schedules provide mandatory instructions on what happens to records when no longer needed for current Government business. They authorize the preservation of records of continuing value in the National Archives of the United States and the destruction, after a specified period, of records lacking administrative, legal, research, or other value. Notice is published for records schedules in which agencies propose to destroy records not previously authorized for disposal or reduce the retention period of records already authorized for disposal. NARA invites public comments on such records schedules, as required by 44 U.S.C. 3303a(a).

DATES: Requests for copies must be received in writing on or before August 16, 1999. Once the appraisal of the records is completed, NARA will send a copy of the schedule. NARA staff usually prepare appraisal memorandums that contain additional information concerning the records covered by a proposed schedule. These, too, may be requested and will be provided once the appraisal is completed. Requesters will be given 30 days to submit comments.

ADDRESSES: To request a copy of any records schedule identified in this notice, write to the Life Cycle Management Division (NWML), National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001.

Requests also may be transmitted by FAX to 301-713-6852 or by e-mail to records.mgt@arch2.nara.gov. Requesters must cite the control number, which appears in parentheses after the name of the agency which submitted the schedule, and must provide a mailing address. Those who desire appraisal reports should so indicate in their request.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marie Allen, Director, Life Cycle Management Division (NWML), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001. Telephone: (301)713-7110. E-mail: records.mgt@arch2.nara.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Each year Federal agencies create billions of records on paper, film, magnetic tape, and other media. To control this accumulation, agency records managers prepare schedules proposing retention periods for records and submit these schedules for NARA's approval, using the Standard Form (SF) 115, Request for Records Disposition Authority. These schedules provide for the timely transfer into the National Archives of historically valuable records and authorize the disposal of all other records after the agency no longer needs to conduct its business. Some schedules are comprehensive and cover all the records of an agency or one of its major subdivisions. Most schedules, however, cover records of only one office or program or a few series of records. Many of these update previously approved schedules, and some include records proposed as permanent.

No Federal records are authorized for destruction without the approval of the Archivist of the United States. This approval is granted only after a thorough consideration of their administrative use by the agency of origin, the rights of the Government and of private persons directly affected by the Government's activities, and whether or not they have historical or other value.

Besides identifying the Federal agencies and any subdivisions requesting disposition authority, this public notice lists the organizational unit(s) accumulating the records or indicates agency-wide applicability in the case of schedules that cover records that may be accumulated throughout an agency. This notice provides the control number assigned to each schedule, the total number of schedule items, and the number of temporary items (the records proposed for destruction). It also includes a brief description of the temporary records. The records schedule itself contains a full description of the records at the file unit level as well as their disposition. If NARA staff has prepared an appraisal memorandum for the schedule, it too, includes information about the records. Further information about the disposition process is available on request.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Abstract

In 1995 OMB approved both the 1996 and 1998 survey cycles of the NSF Survey of Scientific and Engineering Research Facilities at Colleges and Universities (OMB No. 3145-0101). The survey collects information on the science and engineering (S&E) research facilities at the nation's higher education institutions. The 1999 Facilities Survey will also collect information on S&E research facilities at the nation's higher education institutions. The modifications to the approved 1998 questionnaire will make the data more useful to federal agencies and policymakers. The Federal Government intends to use the aggregate data to review average costs of construction. The Follow-Up Survey responds to a revision to OMB Circular A-21 which requires an adequate internal review and approval process for facility costs when an institution has a new large facility costing at least $25 million. The Follow-Up Survey will collect more specific information on each project fitting OMB's qualifications as determined using data reported in the Facilities Survey.

Proposed Modifications to the OMB-Approved 1999 Survey

- Sample size. We are requesting that the 1999 survey sample be increased from a sample of 365 to a census of 579 to allow for more precise data estimates and more complex analyses such as subgroup analyses.

- Modifications to the 1999 questionnaire wording focused on improving the clarity of the questions and increasing the ease of response. The changes include:

- A check-off box was added above each question allowing institutions who participated in the 1998 cycle of the survey and whose information has not changed to simply mark the check-off box instead of copying repeat information into the grids. The check-off boxes are explained in detail on the main instruction page at the beginning of the questionnaire.

- The instructions provided for each question were condensed and made more precise, in an effort to avoid respondent confusion.

- A statement was added to the instructions reminding respondents that animal research facility space should be included in cost calculations.

- Basic skip patterns were added to Items 4A, 4C, 4E, 6A, and 7A to allow respondents to skip over questions that do not apply to their particular institution.

- In an effort to increase specificity, the columns in Item 3 were renamed and a column was added for "Not Applicable." The column headings read: Suitable Space; Requires Minor Repair/Renovation; Requires Major Repair/Renovation; Requires Replacement; and Not Applicable. The definitions of these categories were revised accordingly.

- Items 4C and 4D were reworded to clarify the appropriate inclusion of non-fixed equipment. The wording specifies that non-fixed equipment costs refer to single pieces of non-fixed equipment costing at least $1 million.

- In Items 4B and 6B, a category was added for construction costs equal to or greater than $500,000 for biomedical research facilities.

- A definition of the term "project" was added to the appropriate item glossaries.

- Item 8 was redesigned in an effort to collect more useful data regarding animal research facilities. A question was added in this section asking respondents to rate, as adequate or inadequate, the amount of total animal research NASF available to their institutions. In a new question following the design of Item 3, respondents are asked to rate the current condition of their institution's animal research space. The final question in this section was altered, in the form of a grid, follows the design of Item 4B, requesting the costs and amounts of NASF for animal facility improvements involving repair/renovation and new construction over $100 million scheduled to begin in FY 1000 or FY 2001. Question 3 of Item 8
