

invitational priorities. However, an application that meets one or more of the invitational priorities does not receive competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

Invitational Priority 1—School readiness projects that provide age appropriate educational programs and language skills to three- and four-year old Indian students to prepare them for successful entry into school at the Kindergarten school level.

Invitational Priority 2—Partnership projects between LEAs and institutions of higher education that provide programs and coursework for high school Indian students to prepare them for successful entry into an accredited post-secondary institution of higher education.

Program Authority: 20 U.S.C. 7831.

84.299B Professional Development

Purpose of Program

The purposes of this program are to (1) increase the number of qualified Indian individuals in professions that serve Indian people; (2) provide training to qualified Indian individuals to become teachers, administrators, teacher aides, social workers, and ancillary educational personnel; and (3) improve the skills of qualified Indian individuals who serve in the capacities described in (2). Activities may include, but are not limited to, continuing programs, symposia, workshops, conferences, and direct financial support.

Grants for training educational personnel may be for preservice or inservice training. For individuals who are being trained to enter any field other than education, the training received must be in a program resulting in a graduate degree.

Eligible Applicants

Eligible applicants for this program are institutions of higher education, including Indian institutions of higher education; State or local educational agencies, in consortium with institutions of higher education; and Indian tribes or organizations, in consortium with institutions of higher education. An application from a consortium of eligible entities must meet the requirements of 34 CFR 75.127 through 75.129.

Available Funds: $2,000,000.

Estimated Range of Awards: $250,000 to $300,000.

Estimated Average Size of Awards: $285,714.

Maximum Annual Award Amount: $300,000.

Estimated Number of Awards: 7.

Project Period: Up to 24 months.

Fiscal Information

For the payment of stipends to project participants being trained, the Secretary expects to set the stipend maximum at $1000 per month for full-time students and $125 allowance per month per dependent during the academic year. The terms "stipend," "full-time student," and "dependent allowance" are defined in 34 CFR 263.3.

Priorities

Competitive Preference

(1) The Secretary will award five (5) additional points to applications for programs that include only Indian individuals as training participants.

Authority: Section 9122(e)(2); 20 U.S.C. 7832(e)(2).

(2) The Secretary will award five (5) additional points to applications submitted by Indian tribes, organizations, and institutions of higher education. A consortium application of eligible entities that meets the requirements of 34 CFR 75.127 through 75.129 and includes an Indian tribe, organization or institution of higher education shall be considered eligible to receive the five (5) additional priority points.

Authority: 20 U.S.C. 7873.

Invitational Priority: Pre-service training programs in education or related areas that will enable participants to complete a bachelor's degree and meet state certification requirements for teachers at the elementary, middle or secondary school level by conclusion of the project period. However, an application that meets this invitational priority does not receive competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

[Docket No. RP99-254-002]

Destin Pipeline Company, L.L.C.; Notice of Proposed Changes to FERC Gas Tariff

July 9, 1999.

Take notice that on July 2, 1999, Destin Pipeline Company, L.L.C. (Destin) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, First Substitute, Original Sheet No. 94(a), to become effective September 1, 1999.

Destin states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's letter order dated June 17, 1999 in the above-referenced docket by clarifying that Destin will provide shippers with information regarding the points at which scheduled volumes are being bumped due to capacity allocation. Destin has requested that this sheet be made effective as of September 1, 1999.

Destin states that copies of the filing will be served upon its shippers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with section

385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

[Docket No. CP99-572-000]

Distrigas of Massachusetts Corporation; Notice of Application

July 9, 1999.

Take notice that on June 30, 1999, Distrigas of Massachusetts Corporation (DOMAC) file an abbreviated application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and request for shortened procedures requesting authority to install, operate, and maintain a new supplemental hot water heater at its liquefied natural gas (LNG) terminal in Everett, Massachusetts. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (please call (202) 208-2222 for assistance).

DOMAC states that it requires the new supplemental hot water heater to replace an inoperable supplemental heater, in order to ensure operational reliability and flexibility during ship unloadings and periods of high demand and to provide supplemental service to the hot water system supporting DOMAC's medium-pressure vaporization facilities. DOMAC has also requested issuance of temporary authority by August 9, 1999, if the Commission has not granted a certificate by that date, in order to complete installation and testing by the beginning of an anticipated period of increased terminal send out.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before July 30, 1999, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules. The authorized contact person is Robert A. Nailling, Senior Counsel, Distrigas of Massachusetts Corporation, 75 State Street, 12th Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02109, (617) 526-8300.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Section 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application, if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for DOMAC to appear or be represented at the hearing.
