The Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Act by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA). In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) regulations are to the regulations codified at 19 CFR Part 351 (1998).

Background

On May 21, 1999, Timothy Haley, the president of Pikes Peak Greenhouses, a domestic wholesaler of the subject merchandise; the Floral Trade Council; and the FTC's Committees on Standard Carnations, Miniature Carnations, Standard Chrysanthemums, and Pompon Chrysanthemums (collectively "the FTC and its Committees") requested that the Department of Commerce conduct a changed circumstances administrative review to revoke the antidumping duty order on certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia retroactive to March 1, 1997. The FTC and its Committees stated that they no longer have an interest in maintaining the antidumping duty order. The FTC is a domestic interested party and was the petitioner in the less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation of this proceeding.

We preliminarily determined that the affirmative statement of no interest by the domestic interested party constituted changed circumstances sufficient to warrant revocation of this order. Consequently, on June 8, 1999, we published a notice of initiation of a changed circumstances antidumping duty administrative review and preliminary results of review with intent to revoke order (64 FR 30487). We invited interested parties to comment on the preliminary results of this changed circumstances review. We received no comments.

Scope of Review

The products covered by this changed circumstances review are certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia including standard carnations, miniature (spray) carnations, standard chrysanthemums, and pompon chrysanthemums. These products are currently classifiable under item numbers 0603.10.30.00, 0603.10.70.10, 0603.10.70.20, and 0603.10.70.30 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS item numbers are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the Department's written description of the scope remains dispositive.

This changed circumstances review covers all producers and exporters of certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia.

Final Results of Changed Circumstances Antidumping Duty Administrative Review; Revocation of Order

Pursuant to section 751(d)(1) of the Act, the Department may revoke, in whole or in part, an antidumping duty order based on a review under section 751(b) of the Act (i.e., a changed circumstances review). Section 751(b)(1) of the Act requires a changed circumstances administrative review to be conducted upon receipt of a request containing sufficient information concerning changed circumstances. The Department's regulations at 19 CFR 351.216(d) require the Department to conduct a changed circumstances administrative review in accordance with 19 CFR 351.221 if it decides that changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review exist. Section 782(h) of the Act and section 351.222(g)(1)(i) of the Department's regulations provide further that the Department may revoke an order, in whole or in part, if it concludes that the order under review is no longer of interest to domestic interested parties.

The FTC is a domestic interested party as defined by section 771(9)(E) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.102(b) and was the petitioner in the LTFV investigation of this proceeding. Based on the affirmative statement by the FTC and its Committees of no interest in the continued application of the order and the fact that no interested parties objected to or otherwise commented on our preliminary results of this review, we determine that there are changed circumstances sufficient to warrant revocation of the order. Therefore, the Department is revoking the antidumping duty order on certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia, retroactive to March 1, 1997.

As the result of the revocation, the Department is terminating the administrative reviews covering the following periods: March 1, 1997, through February 28, 1998 (initiated on April 21, 1998 (63 FR 19709)); March 1, 1998, through February 28, 1999 (initiated on April 30, 1999 (64 FR 23269)).

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.222(g)(4), we will instruct the Customs Service to end the suspension of liquidation and to refund any estimated antidumping duties collected for all unliquidated entries of certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia on or after March 1, 1997. We will also instruct the Customs Service to pay interest on such refunds in accordance with section 778 of the Act.

This changed circumstances administrative review, revocation of the antidumping duty order and notice are in accordance with sections 751(b), 751(d) and 782(h) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216 and 351.222.

Dated: July 13, 1999.

Richard W. Moreland,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
