Siebe Appliance Controls (Currently Known as Invensys Appliance Controls) Cooking and Refrigeration Division Including Roger Walter Thomas Winterset, Iowa; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for NAFTA Transitional Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance on April 15, 1999, applicable to workers of Siebe Appliance Controls, Cooking and Refrigeration Division, Winterset, IA. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 11, 1999 (64 FR 25373).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the manufacture of electronic range controls. New information shows that in April, 1999 Siebe Appliance Controls became known as Invensys Appliance Controls. Findings also show that Roger Walter Thomas, an independent contractor, will be separated from employment when the Winterset, Iowa location of Siebe Appliance Controls, currently known as Invensys Appliance Controls closes in August, 1999. Mr. Thomas provides computer programming services to support the production of electronic range controls at the Winterset, Iowa facility.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Siebe Appliance Controls adversely affected by imports of Mexico.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification determination to properly reflect these matters.

The amended notice applicable to NAFTA-2990 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Siebe Appliance Controls, (currently known as Invensys Appliance Controls), Cooking and Refrigeration Division, Winterset, Iowa, including Roger Walter Thomas who provides computer programming services to support the production of electronic range controls for Siebe Appliance Controls, (currently known as Invensys Appliance Controls), Cooking and Refrigeration Division, Winterset, Iowa who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 4, 1998 through April 15, 2001 are eligible to apply for NAFTA-TAA under Section 250 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 30th day of July, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,

Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension of two information collections: the OWCP-1, Agreement and Undertaking (Office of Workers' Compensation Programs); and the WH-201 MIS, Application for Authority for an Institution of Higher Education to Employ its Full-Time Students at Subminimum Wages Under Regulations 29 CFR Part 519 (Wage and Hour). A copy of the proposed information collection requests can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before October 15, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Ms. Patricia A. Forkel, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-3201, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 693-0339 (this is not a toll-free number), fax (202) 693-1451.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Agreement and Undertaking

I. Background

The OWCP-1, Agreement and Undertaking, is a joint use form (Longshore and Black Lung Programs) completed by employers to provide the Secretary of Labor with authorization to sell securities or to bring suit under indemnity bonds deposited by the self-insured employers in the event there is a default in the payment of benefits.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor is seeking an extension of authority to collect this information in order to carry out its responsibility to insure that the correct amount of negotiable securities are deposited or an indemnity bond is purchased and that, in case of default, OWCP can exercise their authority to utilize the securities or bond to meet the company's financial responsibility for coal mine or longshore benefits.

Application for Authority for an Institution of Higher Education to Employ Its Full-Time Students at Subminimum Wages Under Regulations 29 CFR Part 519

I. Background

Section 14(b)(3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) authorizes the Secretary of Labor to provide certificates authorizing the employment of full-time students at subminimum wages in institutions of higher education to the extent necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. This section also sets limits on such employment and protects the full-time employment opportunities of other workers. The WH-201-MIS is used by employers seeking such authorization.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to make a determination whether to grant or deny subminimum wage authority to the applicant.
