

Estimated Annual Burden: 252,762 hours.

4. Disability Evaluation Study—0960-NEW. The Social Security Administration is sponsoring the Disability Evaluation Study (DES), a national disability study of the civilian non-institutionalized population of working-age adults aged 18–69. The DES will provide a key source of data for disability program and policy goals of critical interest to SSA, Congress, and others. SSA will collect information from individuals, aged 18 to 69 years, and their medical providers. SSA will use the information to:

- Estimate and project the size of the potential pool of eligible persons, that is, severely impaired working age individuals who, but for work or other reasons, meet SSA's definition of disability;
- Determine what enables individuals with severe impairments to work;
- Construct self-reported disability measures to be included on national surveys to monitor future program changes and changes in the pool of eligible persons;

- Examine relationships between disability and retirement for older workers;
- Evaluate ways to improve the current disability decision process, such as use of additional objective performance measures.

Following is a listing of the information that will be collected and the burden imposed on the public:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice No. 3119]

Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law (ACPIL), Study Group on Judgments; Meeting Notice

There will be a public meeting of the Study Group on Judgments of the Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law on Friday, September 10, 1999, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in Room 1107 of the U.S. Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW, Washington, DC.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider legal issues related to the project of the Hague Conference on Private International Law to prepare a multilateral convention on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of foreign civil judgments. The meeting will assist the Department of State to prepare the U.S. position for the fifth negotiating session of the Hague Conference's Special Commission on October 25–30, 1999.

The Study Group will consider a provisional draft of the convention reported out of the fourth negotiating session in June 1999, and which will be before the delegates to the fifth session in October 1999. The provisional draft represents an important revision of the preliminary text considered in June at the Hague.

Major issues that will be before the Study Group include: the substantive scope of the convention, including whether it should apply to government litigation, and maritime and nuclear litigation; the scope of application to defendants; jurisdiction in contract, tort, over branches, and based on minimum contacts; prohibited bases of jurisdiction, including tag jurisdiction and general doing business jurisdiction; concurrent filings in separate national courts; forum non conveniens; provisional and protective measures; exceptions to enforcement such as lack of fairness or impartiality in the judgment court; and treatment of punitive, noncompensatory, and "excessive" damages.

It is expected that changes to the provisional draft convention decided at the October negotiating session in the Hague will be reported to a Diplomatic Conference in October 2000 charged with final consideration and adoption of the convention.

Persons interested in the provisional draft convention or in attending the September 10 Study Group meeting in Washington may request a copy of the draft. Requests may be sent to Ms. Rosie Gonzales by fax at 202-776-8482, by phone at 202-776-8420, by email to <pildb@his.com>, or by letter to the address below. Please include your request, name, phone number, and mailing address. Alternatively, the text of the draft may be found at the Hague Conference website: <www.hcch.net/events/e/events.html>.

The Study Group meeting is open to the public up to the capacity of the meeting room. As access to the State Department building is controlled, any person wishing to attend should provide Ms. Gonzales with his or her name, social security number, and date of birth by no later than Monday, September 6, to ensure admission to the building.

It would also be helpful to include affiliation, address, telefax and telephone numbers, and email address for purposes of updating the Department's contact list. Participants should be sure to use only the 23rd Street entrance of the State Department, between C and D Streets, NW, where someone will be present to assist them. Due to revised security procedures all participants must arrive prior to 10:30 a.m., and re-admission to the building may not be possible.

Those unable to attend but wishing to have their views considered may send their views, attention Ms. Gonzales, to the above fax number or email address, or to the following address: Office of the Assistant Legal Adviser for Private International Law, Suite 203, South Building, 2430 E St., NW, Washington, DC 20037-2800.
