

Alaska Statehood Act of July 7, 1958, 48 U.S.C. note prec. 21 (1994), and under Section 906(e) of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 43 U.S.C. 1635(e) (1994), for the lands described in paragraph 1(a), become effective without further action by the State upon publication of this public land order in the Federal Register, if such lands are otherwise available. Lands selected by, but not conveyed to the State, will be subject to the terms and conditions of Public Land Order No. 5184, as amended, Public Land Order No. 5174, as amended, and any other withdrawal or segregation of record.

3. The public lands described in paragraph 1(b) will remain withdrawn as part of the Lake Clark National Preserve pursuant to Sections 201(7)(a) and Section 206 of Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 16 U.S.C. 410hh-5 (1994). This action is for record clearing purposes only as to those lands that have been conveyed out of Federal ownership.

Dated: August 13, 1999.

John Berry,

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

International Trade Commission

[Investigation No. 337-TA-416]

Certain Compact Multipurpose Tools; Notice of Issuance of General Exclusion Order and Termination of Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that, having found violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), the U.S. International Trade Commission has issued a general exclusion order under section 337(d) (19 U.S.C. 1337(d)) and has terminated the investigation.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: P.N. Smyth, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, telephone 202-205-3061. General information concerning the Commission also may be obtained by accessing its Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>). Hearing-impaired individuals can obtain information concerning this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal at 202-205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission conducted the subject investigation to determine whether there is a violation of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain compact multipurpose tools that allegedly infringe claims of four U.S. design patents. The complainant was the patent owner, Leatherman Tool Group, Inc. Six firms were named as respondents: Suncoast of America, Inc.; Quan Da Industries; Kumasama Products Co., Ltd.; Jiangsu Hongbao Group, Corp.; SCIKO Chinalight, Ltd.; and Charles Amash Imports, Inc., d/b/a Grip On Tools. Grip On and Suncoast were terminated from the investigation on the basis of consent orders. The Commission found Jiangsu, Kumasama, Quan Da, and SCIKO to be in default in light of their failure to answer the complaint and notice of investigation in the manner prescribed by the Commission's rules and their failure to respond to orders directing them to show cause why they should not be found in default. By granting the complainant's motions for summary determination on various issues, the Commission determined that the latter four respondents violated section 337.¹

The remaining issues for the Commission to decide were (1) the appropriate remedy for the aforesaid violations, (2) whether the statutory public interest factors precluded such relief, and (3) the amount of the bond during the Presidential review period under section 337(j).² In making those determinations, the Commission was required to take into account the presiding administrative law judge's recommended determination (RD) on permanent relief and bonding under 19 CFR 210.42(a)(2), as well as any written submissions from parties, the public, or other Federal agencies.³ The Commission solicited but did not receive submissions from other agencies or members of the public.⁴ Complainant Leatherman and the Commission investigative attorney each filed a written submission on remedy, the public interest, bonding, and the RD.

After considering the RD and the parties' submissions, the Commission determined that a general exclusion order is the appropriate remedy for the violations found in the subject investigation, that the statutory public interest factors do not preclude such relief, and that the bond during the Presidential review period should be 100 percent of the imported articles' entered value.

The Commission accordingly has terminated the investigation and issued a general exclusion order prohibiting the entry of imported tools covered by one or more of the following design patents: U.S. Letters Patent Des. 385,168, entitled "Scissors," issued on October 21, 1997; U.S. Letters Patent Des. 385,169, entitled "Folding Scissors," issued on October 21, 1997; U.S. Letters Patent Des. 385,170, entitled "Folding Scissors," issued on October 21, 1997; and U.S. Letters Patent Des. 380,362, entitled "Scissors," issued on July 1, 1997.

Nonconfidential copies of the Commission's Order and its Opinion on Remedy, the Public Interest, and Bonding, all other documents cited in this notice, and all other nonconfidential documents filed in the investigation are or will be made available for public inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Commission's Office of the Secretary, Dockets Branch, 500 E Street, SW., Room 112, Washington, DC 20436, telephone 202-205-1802.

Issued: August 30, 1999.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-282 (Review)]

Petroleum Wax Candles From China

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)) (the Act), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.²

Background

The Commission instituted this review on January 4, 1999 (64 FR 365, January 4, 1999) and determined on April 8, 1999 that it would conduct an expedited review (64 FR 19197, April 19, 1999).

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on September 1, 1999. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3226 (August 1999), entitled Petroleum Wax Candles from China: Investigation No. 731-TA-282 (Review).

Issued: September 1, 1999.

By order of the Commission.

Investigation No. 332-345

Shifts in U.S. Merchandise Trade in 1999

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Opportunity to submit written statements in connection with the 1999 report.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 29, 1999.

SUMMARY: The Commission has prepared and published annual reports on U.S. trade shifts in selected industries/commodity areas under investigation No. 332-345 since 1993. The Commission plans to publish the next report in July 2000, which will cover shifts in U.S. trade in 1999 compared with trade in 1998. The report structure and content is anticipated to be similar to the report issued in August 1999. Comments and suggestions regarding the July 2000 report are welcome in written submissions as specified below. The latest version of the report covering 1998 data (USITC Publication 3220, August 1999) may be obtained from the USITC's Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>). A printed report may be requested by contacting the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000 or by fax at 202-205-2104.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Questions about the trade shifts report may be directed to the project leader, Karl Tsuji, Office of Industries (202-205-3434) or the assistant project leader, Tracy Quilter, Office of Industries (202-205-3437). For information on the legal aspects, please contact Mr. William Gearhart, Office of General Counsel (202-205-3091). The media should contact Ms. Margaret O'Laughlin, Public Affairs Officer (202-205-1819). Hearing impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the TDD terminal on (202-205-1810).

Background

The initial notice of institution of this investigation was published in the Federal Register of September 8, 1993 (58 FR 47287). The Commission expanded the scope of this investigation to cover service trade in a separate report, which it announced in a notice published in the Federal Register of December 28, 1994 (59 FR 66974). The merchandise trade report has been published in the current series under investigation No. 332-345 annually since September 1993.

As in past years, each report will summarize and provide analyses of the major trade developments that occurred in the preceding year, and is expected to be published in July of each year. The reports will also provide summary trade information and basic statistical profiles of about 300 industry/commodity groups.

Written Submissions

No public hearing is planned. However, interested persons are invited to submit written comments or suggestions concerning the July 2000 report. Commercial or financial information which a submitter desires the Commission to treat as confidential must be provided on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission for inspection by interested persons. To be assured of consideration by the Commission, written statements relating to the Commission's report should be submitted to the Commission in accordance with section 201.8 at the earliest practical date and should be received no later than the close of business on December 30, 1999. All submissions should be addressed to the Secretary, United States International
