[In this regard] [A]s disclosed in the prospectus materials for each of the Aetna Funds, ALIAC is the investment adviser to [all of the Aetna Funds] Aetna's Portfolio Partners Funds and Aeltus Investment Management, Inc. (AIM) is the investment adviser to the Aetna Series Funds and the Aetna Variable Funds. In addition, both ALIAC and AIM provide other services (the Secondary Services) to Aetna Funds for which they are the investment adviser, including accounting, shareholder administration, [sub-accounting,] and other administrative services. ALIAC also provides sub-accounting services in connection with Aetna Funds offered through its variable annuity contract. Further ALIAC is the principal underwriter to the Aetna Variable Funds and Portfolio Partners, Inc., and [AISI] Aeltus Capital is the principal underwriter to the Aetna Series Funds. In this regard, it is represented that as principal underwriters, ALIAC and [AISI] Aeltus Capital distribute Aetna Fund shares on an agency basis. It is further represented that ALIAC and AIM may engage affiliated or unaffiliated sub-advisers to the Aetna Funds from time to time.

Under the terms of services agreements between ALIAC or AIM and an Aetna Fund, ALIAC or AIM may receive management fees and fees for Secondary Services. In addition, ALIAC or [AISI] Aeltus Capital may receive sales commissions and distribution fees, including for some classes of shares issued by certain Aetna Funds 12b-1 Fees. It is represented that the prospectus materials including the Statement of Additional Information, for each of the Aetna Funds disclose whether such fees are paid and the basis under which such fees are paid.

Aetna informed the Department that it has applied for and is in the process of obtaining authority to establish and operate a federally chartered savings bank (the Savings Bank). If approved, the Savings Bank may establish and operate certain collective investment funds or group trusts or single customer trust accounts on behalf of plans covered by the Act. Aetna would like to ensure that relief provided by the exemption will extend to plans that invest in a trust maintained by the Savings Bank on the same terms and conditions that would apply, if the plan had invested in a trust maintained by Aeltus. Accordingly, Aetna proposes that the Department revise Section IV(a), as published in the Notice (64 FR 25918, column 2, line 55–56), to read as Aeltus means the Aeltus Trust Company, or any other financial institution supervised under state or federal laws and affiliated with Aetna.

The Department concurs and has incorporated the requested language into Section IV(a) of the exemption.

After giving full consideration to the entire record, including the written comments from the applicant, the Department has decided to grant the exemption, as described, amended, and concurred in above. In this regard, the comment letters submitted by the applicant to the Department has been included as part of the public record of the exemption application. The complete application file, including all supplemental submissions received by the Department, is made available for public inspection in the Public Documents Room of the Pension Welfare Benefits Administration, Room N–5638, U. S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20210.

For a more complete statement of the facts and representations supporting the Department's decision to grant this exemption refer to the Notice published on May 13, 1999, at 64 FR 25916.

General Information

The attention of interested persons is directed to the following:

- (1) The fact that a transaction is the subject of an exemption under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code does not relieve a fiduciary or other party in interest or disqualified person from certain other provisions to which the exemptions does not apply and the general fiduciary responsibility provisions of section 404 of the Act, which among other things require a fiduciary to discharge his duties respecting the plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan and in a prudent fashion in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(B) of the Act; nor does it affect the requirement of section 401(a) of the Code that the plan must operate for the exclusive benefit of the employees of the employer maintaining the plan and their beneficiaries;
- (2) These exemptions are supplemental to and not in derogation of, any other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including statutory or administrative exemptions and transactional rules. Furthermore, the fact that a transaction is subject to an administrative or statutory exemption is not dispositive of whether the transaction is in fact a prohibited transaction; and
- (3) The availability of these exemptions is subject to the express condition that the material facts and representations contained in each application accurately describes all material terms of the transaction which is the subject of the exemption.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 21st day of September, 1999.
