PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., Currently Known as Devon Energy, Formerly Known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, and Midland, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 3, 1999 applicable to workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration & Production Company, Houston, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 29, 1999 (64 FR 52540).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that in August, 1999 PennzEnergy Exploration & Production merged with Devon Energy and is currently known as Devon Energy. Findings also show that worker separations occurred at the Midland, Texas location of PennzEnergy Exploration and Production. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of crude oil and natural gas and provided office and management services.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to correctly identify the new title name to read "PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company", Houston, Texas and to cover the workers at the subject firm's Midland, Texas location.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C. adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,526 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, Texas (TA-W-36,526) and Midland, Texas (TA-W-36,526A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 22, 1998 through August 3, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974:

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of October, 1999.

Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Including Leased Workers of Springborn Staffing Services, Westbrook, ME; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 2, 1998, applicable to workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. located in Westbrook, Maine. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 23, 1998 (63 FR 71165).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that some employees of Sappi Fine Papers were leased from Springborn Staffing Services to provide administrative support function services for the production of coated graphic freesheet and specialty paper at the Westbrook, Maine facility. Worker separations occurred at Springborn Staffing Services as a result of worker separations at Sappi Fine Papers North America.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Springborn Staffing Services leased to Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Westbrook, Maine.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,991 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Westbrook, Maine and leased workers of Springborn Staffing Services, Westbrook, Maine engaged in employment related to administrative support function services for the production of coated graphic freesheet and specialty paper for Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Westbrook, Maine who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 9, 1997 through December 2, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 26th day of October, 1999.

Schlumberger Technology Corporation, Schlumberger Oilfield Services; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 26, 1999, applicable to all workers of Schlumberger Oilfield Services, a/k/a Dowell Schlumberger and a/k/a Anadrill Schlumberger, headquartered in Sugarland, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 25, 1999 (64 FR 9354). The certification was subsequently amended to reflect other operating names under which the workers wages were reported.

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the State shows that some workers separated from employment at Schlumberger Technology Corporation, Schlumberger Oilfield Services had their wages reported under three separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax accounts, Camco Industries, International Chandlers and Coastal Management operating at various locations in the above cited states. The workers provide oilfield and gas drilling and exploration services, as well as related support and warehouse duties.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Schlumberger Oilfield Services, a/k/a Dowell Schlumberger and a/k/a Anadrill Schlumberger adversely affected by imports.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,463, TA-W-35,060, TA-W-35,144 and TA-W-35,145 is hereby issued as follows:

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221 (a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address show below, not later than November 15, 1999.
