DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

Champlain Valley Heritage Corridor Project; Extension of Comment Period

The public review period for the draft special resource study of the Champlain Valley, including an environmental assessment, is extended for 30 days from the original closing date of March 1, 2000. It will now close on April 1, 2000. The National Park Service is extending the period of public review to allow interested parties more time to review the draft study.

In accordance with P.L. 103-332, the draft special resource study of the Champlain Valley is available for public review and comment. A special resource study is used by the National Park Service to evaluate a resource for national significance and to assess its suitability and feasibility for possible federal designation and for further National Park Service involvement. Based on the results of this assessment, the study presents a range of possible management alternatives.

The draft special resource study for the Champlain Valley is available for review at most local libraries throughout the Champlain region of New York and Vermont. Copies are also available from W. Douglas Lindsay, Superintendent, Saratoga National Historical Park, 648 Route 32, Stillwater, NY 12170; or from Philip B. Huffman, a National Park Service contractor, 82 Church Street, Burlington, VT 05401. For further information, call Saratoga National Historical Park at 518.664.9821, extension 206; or Mr. Huffman at 802.865.4523. Written comments will be accepted through April 1, 2000 at Boston Support Office, National Park Service, 15 State Street, Boston, MA 02109, Attn: Marjorie Smith.

Sandra Corbett,

Acting Superintendent.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Community Oriented Policing Services; Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Request OMB Emergency Approval; National Center for Victims of Crime: Service Referral Questionnaire.

The Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) has submitted the following information collection request utilizing emergency review procedures, to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. OMB approval has been requested by March 22, 2000. If granted, the emergency approval is only valid for 180 days.

During the first 60 days of this same period a regular review of this information collection is also being undertaken. In addition to comments and/or questions pertaining to this pending request for emergency approval, written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged and will be accepted for 60 days from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register. Comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the items contained in this notice, especially regarding the emergency approval request, estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to the COPS Office, PPSE Division, 1100 Vermont Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001; attn: Karen Beckman. Additionally, comments may be submitted to COPS via facsimile to 202-633-1386, attn: Karen Beckman. Comments may also be submitted to the Department of Justice (DOJ), Justice Management Division, Information Management and Security Staff, Attention: Department Clearance Officer, National Place, Suite 1220, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530. Additionally, comments may be submitted to DOJ via facsimile to 202-514-1534.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: New collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: National Center for Victims of Crime: Service Referral Questionnaire.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form: COPS PPSE/02. Office of Community Oriented Policing Services, U.S. Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Approximately 10,000 victims' services organizations nationwide will be asked to respond. The Service Referral Questionnaire will allow the National Center for Victims of Crime (NCVC) to collect information on agency name, contact information, types of services provided to crime victims, types of crime victims primarily served by the organization, and to request permission to allow the NCVC to include the listing in its service database on its website.

NCVC will use the information collected to provide referral assistance to victims of crime who request information via the telephone through a toll-free number, e-mail, general mail and the NCVC website.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: Surveys will be administered by telephone to approximately 10,000 victims' service organizations nationwide. The survey will also be available to respondents via the NCVC website to allow on-line completion. Administrative preparation and survey completion will take approximately 0.25 hours per respondent (there is no record keeping burden for this collection).

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: Approximately 2,500 hours. If additional information is required contact: Mrs. Brenda E. Dyer, Deputy Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, National Place, Suite 1220, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: March 8, 2000.

Brenda E. Dyer,

Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice.
