Clear Creek states that the proposed tariff sheets, when approved, will enable it to implement unbundled sales service as provided by 18 CFR part 284, subpart J.

Clear Creek explains that on March 2, 1998, it filed an application in Docket No. CP98-256-000, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act (NGA), for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to convert a natural gas production reservoir to a natural gas storage facility, to construct appurtenant facilities and to operate the storage field and related facilities for the sole use of Clear Creek's two owners, Questar Energy Trading Company and Montana Power Ventures, Inc.

Clear Creek explains further that on September 1, 1998, the Commission accepted Clear Creek's application and authorized the company to (1) convert a natural gas production reservoir to a gas storage facility, (2) operate the facility on an open-access basis and (3) perform certain storage-related transportation services under Part 284, Subpart G. Clear Creek states that as the holder of a Part 284, Subpart G certificate, the company automatically has blanket authority to provide unbundled sales in accordance with the provisions of Part 284, Subpart J of the Commission's regulations.

Clear Creek explains that although it has blanket authority to provide unbundled firm and interruptible sales of natural gas, Clear Creek's effective FERC Gas Tariff does not contain tariff provisions applicable to an unbundled sales service. Consequently, as required by 18 CFR 284.286 and 284.287, Clear Creek submits proposed tariff sheets that incorporate the provisions of Subpart J and explain how Clear Creek will comply with the Commission's standards applicable to unbundled sales service.

Clear Creek states that a copy of this filing has been served upon its customers and the Public Service Commission of Wyoming.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC

20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. K N Wattenberg Transmission Limited Liability Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

July 6, 2000.

Take notice that on June 30, 2000, K N Wattenberg Transmission Limited Liability Company (KNW) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff sheets listed on Appendix A to the filing, to become effective August 1, 2000.

In Docket No. RM96-1, the Commission has required that interstate pipelines communicate with their customers via the Internet. The purpose of this compliance filing is to make tariff changes entailed by that requirement and to incorporate the use of a new computer system as previously described in the Request for Extension of Time for KNW in Docket No. RM96-1-009, filed with the commission on May 24, 2000.

KNW requests that the Commission grant any other waivers of its regulations that the Commission may deem necessary to accept KNW's tariff sheet(s) to be effective August 1, 2000.

KNW states that copies of the filing were served upon KNW's jurisdictional customers, interested public bodies and all parties to the proceeding.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission,

888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference room. [Docket No. CP98-150-002]

Millennium Pipeline Company, L.P.; Notice of Amendment

July 6, 2000.

Take notice that on June 28, 2000, Millennium Pipeline Company, L.P. (Millennium), 12801 Fair Lakes Parkway, Fairfax, Virginia 22030, filed in Docket No. CP09-150-002 an amendment to its pending application filed in Docket No. CP98-150-000, to reflect a route variation in Westchester County, New York, all as more fully set forth in the application to amend which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Millennium states that Millennium and the Public Service Commission of the State of New York (PSCNY) have identified an alternative pipeline route in Westchester County, New York which they believe could satisfy the safety concerns that have been expressed by the PSCNY. Millennium indicates that the alternative route for the most part departs from the powerline right-of-way of Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. and instead follows public highways and bike trails for most of its length.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before July 27, 2000, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that protestors provide copies of their protests to the party or parties directly involved.

Any person wishing to become a party in any proceeding herein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

A person obtaining intervenor status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by every one of the intervenors. An intervenor can file for rehearing of any Commission order and can petition for court review of any such order. However, an intervenor must submit copies of comments or any other filing it makes with the Commission to every other intervenor in the proceeding, as well as 14 copies with the Commission.

A person does not have to intervene, however, in order to have comments considered. A person, instead, may submit two copies of comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of environmental documents and will be able to participate in meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by commenters or those requesting intervenor status.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Millennium to appear or to be represented at the hearing.

David P. Boergers,
Secretary.

Morgan Stanley Capital Group Inc., Complainant, v. New York Independent System Operator, Inc. Respondent; Notice of Complaint

July 6, 2000.

Take notice that on July 5, 2000, Morgan Stanley Capital Group, Inc. (MSCG), tendered for filing a complaint pursuant to Section 206 of the Federal Power Act against the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) alleging that the NYISO has unlawfully denied power marketers such as MSCG access to Real-Time markets through its bidding restrictions excluding non-physical transactions in those NYISO markets. MSCG alleges that these bidding restrictions unduly discriminate against certain market participants and serve to distort the marketplace, restrict fluidity, and result in incorrect pricing signals.

Copies of the filing were served upon the NYISO and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests must be filed on or before July 17, 2000. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222) for assistance. Answers to the complaint shall also be due on or before July 17, 2000.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

July 6, 2000.

Take notice that on June 30, 2000, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, Fifth Revised Sheet No. 238 and Fourth Revised Sheet No. 505, to be effective August 1, 2000.

Natural states that the filing is being submitted to set out a correction to its Tariff relating to the allocation of storage injections by pipeline leg under Natural's Rate Schedule NSS. A related change has been made in the Rate Schedule NSS pro forma service agreement. Natural further states that the allocation provision modified in the present filing was not updated to reflect a tariff change giving more flexibility under Natural's Rate Schedule NSS in contracting by pipeline leg.

Natural requests waiver of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Regulations to the extent necessary to permit the tariff sheets submitted to become effective August 1, 2000.

Natural states that copies of the filing have been mailed to its customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations.
