Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request.

The Department of Commerce has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance the following proposal for collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35).

Agency: National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA).

Title: American Fisheries Act:

Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements.

Form Number(s): None.

OMB Approval Number: 0648-0401.

Type of Request: Regular submission.

Burden Hours: 888.

Number of Respondents: 26.

Average Hours Per Response: 5 minutes to submit a copy of a cooperative contract to NMFS, 35 minutes to submit an electronic shoreside processor logbook, 5 minutes to submit a cooperative pollock catch report, 8 hours to submit a cooperative preliminary reports, and 8 hours to submit a cooperative final report.

Needs and Uses: NOAA has issued an emergency interim rule to implement portions of the American Fisheries Act. Included are requirements that participating shoreside processors in Alaska must submit electronic logbooks, and that certain fishery cooperatives must submit copies of their contracts, catch reports, and preliminary and final annual reports. This information is needed for the management of the fishery program. These requirements were originally given emergency clearance under the Paperwork Reduction Act, and NOAA is now requesting approval under standard procedures.

Affected Public: Business and other for-profit organizations.

Frequency: On occasion for submission of contracts and catch reports, daily for electronic shoreside processor logbooks, and annually for preliminary and annual reports.

Respondent's Obligation: Mandatory.

OMB Desk Officer: David Rostker, (202) 395-3897.

Copies of the above information collection proposal can be obtained by calling or writing Madeleine Clayton, Departmental Forms Clearance Officer, (202) 482-3129, Department of Commerce, Room 6086, 14th and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230 (or via the Internet at MClayton@doc.gov).

Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to David Rostker, OMB Desk Officer, Room 10202, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

Dated: August 31, 2000.

Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Son Kim Nguyen; Order Denying Export Privileges

On October 20, 1999, Son Kim (Nguyen) was convicted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana at Lafayette of violating the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C.A. app. sections 2401-2420 (1991 & Supp. 2000)) (the Act).¹ Specifically, Nguyen was convicted of knowingly and intentionally exporting United States military vehicles and military vehicle parts to Vietnam without obtaining the required export license from the Department of Commerce.

Section 11(h) of the Act provides that, at the discretion of the Secretary of ¹ The Act expired on August 20, 1994. Executive Order 12924 (3 CFR 1994 Comp. 917 (1995)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 3, 2000 (65 FR 48347, August 8, 2000), continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. 1701-1706 (1991 & Supp. 2000)).

Commerce,² no person convicted of violating the Act, or certain other provisions of the United States Code, shall be eligible to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act or the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR parts 730–774 (2000), as amended (65 FR 14862, March 20, 2000)) (the Regulations), for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

Pursuant to §§ 766.25 and 750.8(a) of the regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the Act, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person's export privileges for a period of up to 10 years from the date of conviction and shall also determine whether to revoke any license previously issued to such a person.

Having received notice of Nguyen's conviction for violating the Act, and after providing notice and an opportunity for Nguyen to make a written submission to the Bureau of Export Administration before issuing an Order denying his export privileges, as provided in § 766.25 of the regulations, I, following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, have decided to deny Nguyen's export privileges for a period of five years from the date of his conviction. The five-year period ends on October 20, 2004. I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act in which Nguyen had an interest at the time of his conviction.

According, it is hereby Ordered

I. Until October 20, 2004, Son Kim Nguyen, 8662 Amy Avenue, Garden Grove, California 92841, may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States, that is subject to the regulations, or in any other activity subject to the regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Apply for, obtaining, or using any license, License Exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the regulations, or in any other activity subject to the regulations; or

C. Benefiting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the regulations, or in any other activity subject to the regulations.

II. No person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export or reexport to or on behalf of the denied person any time subject to the regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the denied person of the ownership, possession, or control of any time subject to the regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the denied person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the denied person of any item subject to the regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the denied person in the United States any item subject to the regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the denied person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the denied person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

III. After notice and opportunity for comment as provided in 766.23 of the regulations, any person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Nguyen by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services may also be subject to the provisions of this Order.

IV. This Order does not prohibit any export, reexport, or other transaction subject to the regulations where the only items involved that are subject to the regulations are the foreign-produced direct product of U.S.-origin technology.

V. This Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until October 20, 2004.

VI. In accordance with part 756 of the regulations, Nguyen may file an appeal from this Order with the Under Secretary for Export Administration. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of part 756 of the regulations.

VII. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to Nguyen. This Order shall be published in the Federal Register.

Dated: August 29, 2000.

Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products and Certain Cut-to-Length Carbon Steel Plate From Canada: Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Administrative Reviews and Recission of Reviews in Part AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of preliminary results of antidumping duty administrative reviews and recission of reviews in part.

SUMMARY: In response to requests from interested parties, the Department of Commerce (the Department) is conducting administrative reviews of the antidumping duty orders on certain corrosion-resistant carbon steel flat products (CORE) and certain cut-to-length carbon steel plate (CTL plate) from Canada. These reviews cover two manufacturers/exporters of CORE and three manufacturers/exporters of CTL plate, for the period August 1, 1998 through July 31, 1999.

We have preliminarily determined that sales have been made below normal value (NV) by various companies subject to these reviews. See "Preliminary Results of Reviews" section below for the company-specific rates. If these preliminary results are adopted in our final results of these administrative reviews, we will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to assess
