SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a summary of the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in WC Docket No. 03-109, FCC 03-120, released on June 9, 2003. The full text of this document is available for public inspection during regular business hours in the FCC Reference Center, Room CY-A257, 445 12th Street, SW., Washington, DC 20554.

I. Introduction

1. In this Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM), the Commission seeks comment on the Recommended Decision of the Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service (Joint Board) regarding modifications to the Lifeline and Link-Up programs. In its Recommended Decision, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission expand the default federal eligibility criteria to include an income-based criterion and additional means-tested programs. In addition, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission require states, under certain circumstances, to adopt verification procedures. Finally, to more effectively target low-income consumers, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission provide outreach guidelines for the Lifeline/Link-Up program.

2. The Commission notes that the Joint Board recommended that the Commission specifically seek comment on several issues. In particular, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission seek more information about the reasons for differences in low-income penetration rates over time and among states. The Joint Board recommended that the Commission adopt a voluntary information collection from the states regarding their Lifeline/Link-Up programs, and seek comment on the survey's format and questions. The Joint Board also recommended that the Commission seek comment on whether it would be possible to modify the Link-Up program to directly address barriers posed by outstanding unpaid balances for local and long distance services. In addition, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission obtain more information about how an appeals process for the termination of Lifeline benefits could work and whether 60 days was an appropriate time period for a consumer to appeal. Finally, the Joint Board recommended that the Commission seek comment on whether states could adopt verification of continued Lifeline eligibility procedures within one year. The Commission encourages commenters to address these issues in their comments.

3. In addition, the Commission seeks comment on several minor changes to clarify and streamline our rules. Section 52.33(a)(1)(i)(C) of the Commission's rules states that "Lifeline Assistance Program customers shall not receive the monthly number-portability charge." However, this rule is not referenced in § 54.401 of the Commission's rules where Lifeline is defined. The Commission proposes to add paragraph (e) to § 54.401 to clarify that Lifeline customers are exempt from the monthly number-portability charge, cross-referencing § 52.33(a)(1)(i)(C). Additionally, in the First Report and Order, 62 FR 32862, June 17, 1997, the Commission adopted the Joint Board's recommendation to prohibit service deposit requirements for customers who accept toll limitation. Currently, § 54.401(c) states that, "[e]ligible telecommunications carriers may not collect a service deposit in order to initiate Lifeline service, if the qualifying low-income consumer voluntarily elects toll blocking from the carrier, where available. If toll blocking is unavailable, the carrier may charge a service deposit." The Commission proposes to amend this section by replacing "toll blocking" with "toll limitation" to make this rule consistent with the First Report and Order. Finally, subpart G of part 36 of our rules, Lifeline Connection Assistance Expense Allocation, states that "[t]his subpart shall be effective through December 31, 1997. On January 1, 1998, Lifeline Connection Assistance shall be provided in accordance with part 54, subpart E of this chapter." Because §§ 36.701 through 36.741 contained in this subpart are no longer effective, the Commission proposes to remove this subpart from our rules.

II. Procedural Issues

A. Ex Parte Presentations

4. This is a permit but disclose rulemaking proceeding. Ex parte presentations are permitted, except during the Sunshine Agenda period, as long as they are disclosed as provided in the Commission's rules.

B. Initial Paperwork Reduction Act Analysis

5. This NPRM may modify an information collection. As part of a continuing effort to reduce paperwork burdens, we invite the general public and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to take this opportunity to comment on the information collections contained in this NPRM, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13. Public and agency comments are due at the same time as other comments on this Notice; OMB comments are due August 18, 2003. Comments should address: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimates; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

C. Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

6. As required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA), the Commission has prepared this Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis (IRFA) of the possible significant economic impact on small entities by the policies and rules proposed in this NPRM. Written public comments are requested on this IRFA. Comments must be identified as responses to the IRFA and must be filed by the deadlines for comments on the NPRM provided below in section I.D. The Commission will send a copy of the NPRM, including this IRFA, to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration. In addition, the NPRM and IRFA (or summaries thereof) will be published in the Federal Register.

1. Need for and Objectives of the Proposed Rules

7. On December 21, 2000, the Commission requested the Joint Board to review the Lifeline/Link-Up program for all low-income consumers. The Joint Board subsequently released a public notice seeking comment on the Lifeline/Link-Up program. On April 2, 2003, the Joint Board released its recommendations regarding modifications to the Lifeline/Link-Up program. This NPRM seeks comment on the Joint Board's recommendations.

8. Since its inception, the Lifeline/Link-Up program has provided support for telephone service to millions of low-income consumers. Despite this success, the Commission believes that the program can be further improved. For example, expanding the current federal default eligibility criteria to add an income-based criterion of 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) and additional means-tested programs would allow the Lifeline/Link-Up program to adapt to the changes resulting from "The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act" (PROWRA) and would otherwise address issues associated with receiving public assistance. Permitting eligibility based solely on income responds to concerns that PROWRA has caused decreased enrollment in welfare assistance programs. Participants in means-tested programs must meet income-based eligibility criteria that vary by program. Requiring participation in such programs or utilizing income-based criteria ensures that only low-income consumers are eligible for Lifeline/Link-Up support.

9. Adding certification for income-based eligibility and verification requirements for program and income-based eligibility would ensure that only eligible low-income individuals receive benefits, thereby preventing fraud and abuse. Adopting outreach guidelines would facilitate the marketing of the Lifeline/Link-Up program to eligible individuals and increase telephone subscribership among low-income households. Finally, issuing a survey form would enable the Commission to gather data and information from states regarding the administration of Lifeline/Link-Up programs. The Commission believes that these proposed modifications to the Lifeline/Link-Up program may increase Lifeline/Link-Up subscription rates and make phone service affordable to more low-income individuals and families.

2. Legal Basis

10. The legal basis as proposed for this NPRM is contained in sections 4(i), 4(j), 201-205, 214, 254, and 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 4(i), 4(j), 201-205, 214, 254, 403.

3. Description and Estimate of the Number of Small Entities to Which the Proposed Rules Will Apply

11. The RFA directs agencies to provide a description of, and where feasible, an estimate of the number of small entities that may be affected by the proposed rules, if adopted. The RFA generally defines the term "small entity" as having the same meaning as the terms "small business," "small organization," and "small governmental jurisdiction." In addition, the term "small business" has the same meaning as the term "small business concern" under the Small Business Act. A "small business concern" is one which: (1) Is independently owned and operated; (2) is not dominant in its field of operation; and (3) satisfies any additional criteria established by the Small Business Administration (SBA).

12. The Commission's decision to adopt certification and verification requirements, and its use of a voluntary survey, would apply to service providers that provide services to qualifying low-income consumers who receive Lifeline/Link-Up support. According to the Universal Service Administrative Company's (USAC) 2002 Annual Report, only local exchange carriers, cellular/personal communications services (PCS) providers, and competitive access providers would be subject to these requirements. Because many of these service providers could include small entities, the Commission expects that the proposal in this proceeding could have a significant economic impact on local exchange carriers, small incumbent local exchange carriers, cellular/PCS providers, and competitive access providers that are small entities.

13. Small Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers. The Commission has included small incumbent local exchange carriers in this present RFA analysis. As noted above, a "small business" under the RFA is on that, inter alia, meets the pertinent small business size standard (e.g., a telephone communications business having 1,500 or fewer employees), and "is not dominant in its field of operation." The SBA's Office of Advocacy contends that, for RFA purposes, small incumbent local exchange carriers are not dominant in their field of operation because any such dominance is not "national" in scope. The Commission has therefore included small incumbent local exchange carriers in this RFA analysis, although we emphasize that this RFA action has no effect on Commission analyses and determinations in other, non-RFA contexts.

14. Local Exchange Carriers, Small Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers, Competitive Access Providers. Neither the Commission nor the SBA has developed a size standard specifically for small providers of local exchange services. The closest applicable size standard under the SBA rules is for wired telecommunications carriers. This provides that a wired telecommunications carrier is a small entity if it employs no more than 1,500 employees. According to the most recent Commission data there are 1,619 local services providers with 1,500 or fewer employees. Because it seems certain that some of these carriers are not independently owned and operated, the Commission is unable at this time to estimate with greater precision the number of these carriers that would qualify as small business concerns under SBA's size standard. Of the 1,619 local service providers, 1,024 are incumbent local exchange carriers, 411 are Competitive Access Providers (CAPs) and Competitive Local Exchange Carriers (CLECs), 131 are resellers and 53 are other local exchange carriers. Consequently, the Commission estimate that no more than 1,619 providers of local exchange service are small entities may be affected.

15. Cellular and Other Wireless Telecommunications. The SBA has developed a small business size standard for Cellular and Other Wireless Telecommunications, which consists of all such firms having 1,500 or fewer employees. According to data for 1997, a total of 977 such firms operated for the entire year. Of those, 965 firms employed 999 or fewer persons for the year, and 12 firms employed 1,000 or more. Therefore, nearly all such firms were small businesses. In addition, the Commission notes that there are 1,807 cellular licenses; however, a cellular licensee may own several licenses. According to Commission data, 858 carriers reported that they were engaged in the provision of cellular service, Personal Communications Service (PCS), or Specialized Mobile Radio telephony service, which are placed together in the data. We have estimated that 291 of these are small under the SBA small business size standard.

16. Broadband Personal Communications Service (PCS). The broadband PCS spectrum is divided into six frequencies designated A through F, and the Commission has held auctions for each block. The Commission defined "small entity" for Blocks C and F as an entity that has average gross revenues of less than $40 million in the three previous calendar years. For Block F, an additional classification for "very small business" was added and is defined as an entity that, together with their affiliates, has average gross revenues of not more than $15 million for the preceding three calendar years. These regulations defining "small entity" in the context of broadband PCS auctions have been approved by the SBA. No small businesses within the SBAapproved definition bid successfully for licenses in Blocks A and B. There were 90 winning bidders that qualified as small entities in the Block C auctions. A total of 93 small and very small business bidders won approximately 40% of the 1,479 licenses for Blocks D, E, and F. On March 23, 1999, the Commission re-auctioned 347 C, D, E, and F Block licenses; there were 48 small business winning bidders. Based on this information, the Commission concludes that the number of small broadband PCS licensees will include the 90 winning C Block bidders and the 93 qualifying bidders in the D, E, and F blocks, plus the 48 winning bidders in the re-auction, for a total of 231 small entity PCS providers as defined by the SBA and the Commission's auction rules. On January 26, 2001, the Commission completed the auction of 422 C and F Broadband PCS licenses in Auction No. 35. Of the 35 winning bidders in this auction, 29 qualified as small or very small businesses.

4. Description of Projected Reporting, Recordkeeping, and Other Compliance Requirements

17. Currently, carriers that receive Lifeline/Link-Up support are required to submit FCC Form 497 on a quarterly basis for each month. Regardless of any rule changes, carriers will continue to be required to submit this form to USAC. Should the Commission decide to adopt the Joint Board's recommendation to require states to implement and carriers to perform certification and verification procedures, the associated rule changes could require carriers to retain additional records to document compliance with performing certification and verification of a consumer's eligibility. Without more certainty about which options the Commission will or will not adopt as rules, we cannot accurately estimate the cost of compliance by small carriers, including whether FCC Form 497 will require carriers to provide more information in response to new rule changes. In this NPRM, the Commission therefore seeks comment on the types of burdens carriers will face in retaining records documenting certification and verification compliance, and in submitting reports to USAC. The Commission also seeks comment on whether the costs of such recordkeeping and reporting are outweighed by the potential benefits of the possible reforms. Entities, especially small businesses, are encouraged to quantify, if possible, the costs and benefits of the reporting and recordkeeping requirement proposals, if possible.

5. Steps Taken To Minimize Significant Economic Impact on Small Entities, and Significant Alternatives Considered

18. The RFA requires an agency to describe any significant alternatives that it has considered in reaching its proposed approach, which may include the following four alternatives (among others): (1) The establishment of differing compliance or reporting requirements or timetables that take into account the resources available to small entities; (2) the clarification, consolidation, or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements under the rule for small entities; (3) the use of performance, rather than design, standards; and (4) an exemption from coverage of the rule, or any part thereof, for small entities.

19. The NPRM seeks comment on how to reduce the administrative burden and cost of compliance for small telecommunications service providers. The Commission has accepted the statutory requirement that an alternative be considered when necessary to protect the interests of small entities. We particularly seek comment from contributors that are "small business concerns" under the Small Business Act on the following proposals contained in the Recommended Decision.

20. The Commission seeks comment, for example, on the Joint Board's recommendation that the Commission require carriers to notify consumers of their impending termination of Lifeline benefits when the carrier initiates termination of a consumer's Lifeline benefits. The consumer could have up to 60 days to appeal to their carrier before Lifeline support is discontinued. The Commission seeks further comment on how such an appeals process would work, balancing the needs of Lifeline recipients with the administrative burden that an appeals process may impose on carriers. Without such an appeals process, consumers may have difficulty maintaining telephone service if the consumer's financial situation temporarily fluctuates. Telephone service is necessary for finding and keeping a job, thus assisting the consumer in his/her climb out of poverty into the working world.

21. To reduce the administrative burden on states to adopt certification and verification procedures, the Joint Board compiled an appendix of state certification and verification procedures to provide guidance to other states seeking to adapt those procedures to their state Lifeline/Link-Up programs. Although these requirements may impose an additional burden on carriers required to perform the certification and verification, the Joint Board believes that these requirements prevent fraud and abuse, maintain the integrity of the Lifeline universal service support mechanism, and are necessary to help control costs.

6. Federal Rules That May Duplicate, Overlap, or Conflict With the Proposed Rules

22. None.

D. Comment Filing Procedures

23. The Commission invites comment on the issues and questions set forth in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis contained herein. FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

47 CFR Part 90

[WT Docket No. 99-87; RM-9332; FCC 03-34]

Implementation of Sections 309(j) and 337 of the Communications Act of 1934 as Amended and Promotion of Spectrum Efficient Technologies on Certain Part 90 Frequencies

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: In this document the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) provides public notice that it is considering adopting new rules related to promoting spectrum efficiency for private land mobile radio services (PLMRS), and is seeking public comment. The FCC seeks comment on whether existing equipment certification requirements are sufficient to promote migration to one voice path per 6.25 kHz bandwidth or equivalent technology, or whether migration to 6.25 kHz bandwidth or equivalent technology should be mandatory. The FCC seeks comment on its tentative conclusion that in order to facilitate migration to 6.25 kHz technology, it should take regulatory actions similar to the ones it has taken to facilitate the migration to 12.5 kHz technology. The FCC also seeks comment on the date(s) by which licensees would be required to migrate to 6.25 kHz technology and to have taken any other related compliance actions, in the event a new requirement were adopted mandating migration to 6.25 kHz. The FCC seeks public comment in an effort to fully understand the issues associated with a migration to 6.25 kHz technology and, within the same context, to fully understand what, if anything can be learned from its experience of establishing regulatory requirements to secure migration to 12.5 kHz technology. The FCC intends to develop a comprehensive record on issues and concerns surrounding migration to 6.25 kHz technology.

DATES: Comments on or before September 15, 2003, and reply comments on or before October 15, 2003.

ADDRESSES: Federal Communications Commission 445 12th Street, SW., Washington, DC 20554, See

1. Earlier in the same docket, the FCC, sought comments on, inter alia, certain proposals to promote new spectrum-efficient technology. This FNPRM seeks comment on additional issues related to promoting spectrum efficiency for the PLMRS. In addition, the FNPRM seeks comment on whether the equipment certification provision in the current rules is sufficient to promote migration to one voice path per 6.25 kHz bandwidth or equivalent technology, or whether migration to 6.25 kHz bandwidth or equivalent technology should be mandatory.

Procedural Matters

A. Regulatory Flexibility Act Analyses

2. As required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA), see 5 U.S.C. 604, the FCC has prepared an Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis concerning the impact of the policies and rules addressed by the FNPRM. The Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is set forth further. The FCC's Consumer Information Bureau, Reference Information Center, will send a copy of the FNPRM, including the Initial Regulatory Flexibility Act Analyses, to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration.

B. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 Analysis

3. This document does not contain any new or modified information collection. Therefore, it is not subject to the requirements for a paperwork reduction analysis, and we have not performed one.
