Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) If it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) If in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a mis-interpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The TAA petition, filed on behalf of workers at Intermet, Radford Foundry, Radford, Virginia engaged in the production of camshafts, reaction shafts and transmission components were denied because the "contributed importantly" group eligibility requirement of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 was not met.
