On July 16, 2004, we published a notice in the Federal Register to invite written comments on accrediting agencies that had submitted petitions for review by the Advisory Committee at its December 13-15, 2004 meeting. Although the Distance Education and Training Council was included in the list of accrediting agencies for the Advisory Committee's review of the Council's progress report, the July 16, 2004 notice omitted the Council's request for an expansion of scope. This notice invites written comments on the petition for expansion of scope submitted by the Distance Education and Training Council that will be reviewed at the Advisory Committee meeting to be held on December 13-15, 2004.

Petition for an Expansion of Scope

1. Distance Education and Training Council (Current scope of recognition: The accreditation of postsecondary institutions in the United States offering programs primarily by the distance education method up through the first professional degree. Title IV Note: Accreditation by this agency does not enable the entities it accredits to establish eligibility to participate in Title IV programs.) (Requested scope of recognition: the accreditation of postsecondary institutions in the United States offering programs primarily by the distance education method up through the first professional degree. Title IV Note: Under current law, distance education entities accredited by this agency are not eligible to participate in Title IV programs, other than the Distance Education Demonstration Project.)

Yes, this notice announces the only opportunity you will have to submit written comments. However, another Federal Register notice will announce the meeting and invite individuals and/or groups to submit requests to make oral presentations before the Advisory Committee on the agencies that the Committee will review. That notice, however, does not offer an opportunity to submit written comment.

What Happens to the Comments That I Submit?

We will review your comments, in response to this notice, as part of our evaluation of the Distance Education and Training Council's compliance with the Secretary's Criteria for Recognition of Accrediting Agencies. The Criteria are regulations found in 34 CFR Part 602 (for accrediting agencies).

We will also respond to your comments, as appropriate, in the staff analysis we present to the Advisory Committee at its December 2004 meeting. Therefore, in order for us to give full consideration to your comments, it is important that we receive them by September 27, 2004. In all instances, your comments regarding the Distance Education and Training Council must relate to the Criteria for Recognition.

What Happens to Comments Received After the Deadline?

We will review any comments received after the deadline. If such comments, upon investigation, reveal that the accrediting agency is not acting in accordance with the Criteria for Recognition, we will take action either before or after the meeting, as appropriate.
