Maritime Administration

Maritime Security Training Course

AGENCY: Maritime Administration (MARAD), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of availability of maritime security training course approval program.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce a voluntary program for approval of maritime security training courses under the Maritime Transportation Security Act of 2002 (MTSA). Training providers wishing to receive course approval are invited to submit applications under this program, which was developed jointly by MARAD and the United States Coast Guard (USCG). Training providers—profit or non-profit—must be organized and authorized to conduct business under the Federal laws of the United States, or under the laws of any state of the United States, and they must conduct the training in the United States or aboard a United States flag vessel to be eligible for this program.

There is no cost to training providers for course approval under this program; however, the program is subject to limited funding, and fees may be required when funding is exhausted. The goal of the program is to promote high quality, uniform training of maritime security professionals. Details of the program are available on the MARAD Web site: <http://www.marad.dot.gov>.

DATES: Effective Date: This program is effective February 8, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Christopher E. Krusa, Office of Policy and Plans, Maritime Administration, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC 20590-0001, (202) 366-2648, chris.krusa@marad.dot.gov. Program details are also available on the MARAD Web site: <http://www.marad.dot.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 109 of the Maritime Transportation Security Act of 2002 (Pub. L. 107-295) addressed the need for maritime security education and training to counter terrorist and other security threats involving the port, maritime, and intermodal transportation environment. Section 109 specifically charged the Secretary of Transportation with responsibility for fulfilling this need, requiring that “the Secretary shall develop standards and curriculum to allow for the training and certification of maritime security professionals.” The Secretary of Transportation found that MARAD had the expertise to develop and implement a program for the training and certification of maritime security professionals within its area of responsibility. Accordingly, on April 3, 2003, the Secretary delegated the Section 109 security mandate to MARAD.

At the request of the Maritime Administrator, the United States Merchant Marine Academy (USMMA) developed the required training standards and curriculum and prepared a report to Congress in May 2003. The report characterized security threats to the marine and intermodal transportation system; summarized relevant domestic legislation, international conventions, and other guidance; delineated key workforce development issues; described the project undertaken by MARAD in fulfillment of the Secretary’s Section 109 responsibilities; presented the standards and curriculum developed in response to the MTSA mandate; and offered recommendations for the certification and oversight of maritime security education and training.
