[Project Nos. 12688–000, 12689–000, 12690–000, and 12692–000]

Public Utility District No. 1 of Snohomish County, WA; Notice Granting Late Intervention

November 16, 2006.

On June 22, 2006, the Commission issued a notice in each above-captioned proceeding of the preliminary permit application filed by Public Utility District No. 1 of Snohomish County, Washington, in the proceeding.<sup>1</sup> The notices established August 21, 2006, as the deadline for filing motions to intervene.

On August 23 and 28, 2006, respectively, the Tulalip Tribes and the Whidbey Environmental Action Network filed late motions to intervene in the proceedings. Granting the motions to intervene will not unduly delay or disrupt the proceedings, or prejudice other parties to them. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 214,<sup>2</sup> the motions to intervene filed by the Tulalip Tribes and Whidbey Environmental Action Network are granted, subject to the Commission's rules and regulations.

RC Cape May Holdings, LLC; Notice Of Issuance Of Order

November 17, 2006.

RC Cape May Holding, LLC (RC Cape May) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate schedule. The proposed market-based rate schedule provides for the sale of energy, capacity and ancillary services at market-based rates. RC Cape May also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, RC Cape May requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by RC Cape May.

On November 16, 2006, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—West, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Cape May should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 18, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, RC Cape May is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of RC Cape May, compatible

<sup>1</sup> The applications seek separate preliminary permits for: (1) The Rich Passage Tidal Energy Project No. 12688, to be located in Rich Passage in Puget Sound, Kitsap County, Washington; (2) the Spieden Channel Tidal Energy Project No. 12689, to be located in Spieden Channel in San Juan County, Washington; (3) the Admiralty Inlet Tidal Energy Project No. 12690, to be located in Admiralty Inlet in Jefferson, Kitsap, and Island Counties, Washington; and (4) the San Juan Channel Tidal Energy Project No. 12692, to be located in San Juan Channel in San Juan County, Washington.

<sup>1</sup> Pomona Grange #50 San Juan County, Washington, filed its motion at 5:54 p.m. on August 23, 2006. Pursuant to 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(2)(2006), any document received after regular business hours is considered filed on the next business day. The Commission's regular business hours end at 5 p.m., U.S. Eastern Time. See <http://www.ferc.gov/contact-us/build-access.asp>. See also, 18 CFR 375.101(c)(the offices of the Commission are open each day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.)

with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of RC Cape May's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document.

Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RP07-60-000]

Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline, Inc.; Notice of Filing of Operational Flow Order Penalty Report

November 16, 2006.

Take notice that on November 9, 2006, Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline, Inc. (Southern Star) tendered for filing, pursuant to Section 10.3 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff, its report of Operational Flow Order (OFO) penalty revenues and refunds.

Southern Star states that pursuant to the Operational Flow Order mechanism contained in Section 10 of the General Terms and Conditions of Southern Star's tariff, they did not issue any OFOs. Therefore no penalties were assessed or collected and no refunds are required for the twelve-month period ending September 30, 2006.

Southern Star states that copies of the filing were served on all jurisdictional customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible online at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC.
