[Docket No. CP08-22-000]

DCP Midstream, LP; Notice of Petition for Declaratory Order

November 28, 2007.

Take notice that on November 13, 2007, DCP Midstream, LP (DCP Midstream) 370 17th Street, Suite 2500, Denver, Colorado 80202 filed in Docket No. CP08-22-000, under Rule 207(a)(2) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.207(a)(2)(2007), a petition for a declaratory order requesting that the Commission disclaim jurisdiction over certain natural gas facilities DCP Midstream would purchase from Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco),¹ because such facilities perform a gathering function and would be exempt from the Commission's jurisdiction under section 1(b) of the Natural Gas Act.

DCP Midstream states that it would purchase Transco's South Texas facilities, consisting of approximately 135.6 miles of natural gas pipelines and related meter stations, valves, miscellaneous field and tie-in piping, other appurtenances along the pipeline segments, and related realty and easement rights. These facilities would handle unprocessed natural gas in Hidalgo, Willacy, Starr, Brooks, and Jim Wells Counties, Texas, and would be incorporated into DCP Midstream's existing south Texas gathering facilities for processing at DCP Midstream's LaGloria Processing Plant.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

[Docket Nos. ER07-1247-000; ER07-1247-001; ER07-1247-002]

FC Energy Services Company, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

November 28, 2007.

FC Energy Services Company, LLC (FC Energy) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate schedule. The proposed market-based rate schedule provides for the sale of energy, capacity and ancillary services at market-based rates. FC Energy also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, FC Energy requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by FC Energy.

On November 28, 2007, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development-West, granted the requests for blanket approval under part 34 (Director's Order). The Director's Order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard concerning the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by FC Energy, should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing protests is December 28, 2007.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition to such blanket approvals by the deadline above, FC Energy is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of FC Energy, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

¹ Transco filed an application with the Commission in Docket No. CP08-25-000 on November 13, 2007, requesting permission and approval to abandon the subject facilities by sale to DCP Midstream.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of FC Energy's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.
