BILLING CODE 4410-15-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Civil Rights Division; Office of Special Counsel's Antidiscrimination Guidance for Employers Following the Department of Homeland Security's Safe-Harbor Procedures

AGENCY: Civil Rights Division, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice provides guidance from the Department of Justice's Office of Special Counsel for employers following the Department of Homeland Security's Safe-Harbor Procedures pertaining to the receipt of "no-match" letters from the Social Security Administration ("SSA").

DATES: This notice is effective on October 28, 2008.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sarah DeCosse, Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices, Civil Rights Division, Department of Justice, P.O. Box 27728, Washington, DC 20038; Phone 202-616-5594.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Homeland Security's ("DHS's") Safe-Harbor Procedures for Employers Who Receive a No-Match Letter ("no-match rule") was published as a final rule on August 15, 2007 (72 FR 45611). The August 2007 rule was proposed to be modified by a Supplemental Proposed Rule that was published by DHS on March 26, 2008 (73 FR 15944). Elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, DHS is publishing a Supplemental Final Rule finalizing its March 2008 Supplemental Proposed rule.

The DHS's no-match rule offers employers who receive no-match letters from the Social Security Administration ("SSA") a safe-harbor in a related-immigration enforcement action if those employers follow the series of steps set forth in the no-match rule to ensure that the information provided by affected employees to confirm their work eligibility is genuine. The no-match rule provides that an employer may terminate an employee whose work eligibility could not be confirmed after the employer has followed the procedures that the rule sets forth.

Employers in the United States have inquired and sought information regarding any antidiscrimination implications for employers who follow these safe-harbor procedures; specifically, when the SSA notifies the employer that certain employees' names and Social Security numbers do not match in the SSA's records, the employer follows the procedures in DHS's no-match rule, the employees cannot resolve the mismatch or successfully complete a new employment eligibility verification, and the employer dismisses those employees. The Department of Justice (the Department) issues this notice to clarify when the Department, through the Civil Rights Division's Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices (OSC), may find reasonable cause to believe that employers following the safe-harbor procedures have engaged in unlawful discrimination in violation of the antidiscrimination provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 274B, which are codified in 8 U.S.C. 1324b.

OSC enforces the antidiscrimination provisions found at 8 U.S.C. 1324b (corresponding regulations appear in 28 CFR Parts 44, 68). Section 1324b protects United States citizens and certain work-authorized persons from intentional employment discrimination based upon citizenship or immigration status, national origin, and unfair documentary practices relating to the
