

resulted in substantial improvement to both the layout and the wording of the form, e.g., the consultant suggested revising the preamble to clarify that the information on the proposed Disclosure Form relates specifically to the business opportunity that the reader is being offered, and suggested adding a note below the signature line stating that the FTC requires that the business opportunity seller give the reader at least seven calendar days before asking him or her to sign a purchase contract. The format and language of the revised proposed Business Opportunity Disclosure Form ("revised proposed Disclosure Form") is set forth in Appendix A to this Notice.⁹ More information about the testing of the proposed Disclosure Form may be found at: (<http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/workshops/bizopps/disclosure-form-report.pdf>).

II. Issues for Discussion at the Workshop

The primary focus of the workshop will be on the efficacy of the revised proposed Disclosure Form to convey critical material information to prospective purchasers of business opportunities. The workshop will explore the form as a whole, as well as specific aspects or sections of the form—for example, whether the required disclosures regarding legal actions and cancellation or refund policies are adequate. The workshop also will provide participants with an opportunity to discuss some general issues raised in the comments received in response to the RNPR, including: the implications of the RPBOR for businesses and consumers; whether certain definitions proposed in the RNPR accomplish the Commission's purposes stated in the RNPR; and the RPBOR's compatibility with existing federal and state policies. A more detailed agenda will be published at a later date, in advance of the scheduled workshop.

III. Public Participation Information

A. Registration Information

The public workshop will consist of a roundtable discussion on the issues described above by those individuals selected to be panelists. A court reporter will be present to record the proceedings so that a transcription can be made for the public record. The FTC will accept pre-registration for this workshop. Pre-registration is not necessary to attend, but is encouraged so that staff may better plan this event. To pre-register, please email your name and affiliation to businessopportunityworkshop@ftc.gov. When you pre-register, the FTC collects your name, affiliation, and e-mail address. We will use this information to estimate how many people will attend and better understand the likely audience for the workshop, and will dispose of it following the workshop. We may use your e-mail address to contact you with information about the workshop. The FTC Act and other laws the Commission administers permit the collection of this contact information to consider and use for the above purposes. Under the Freedom of Information Act or other laws, we may be required to disclose the information you provide to outside organizations. For additional information, including routine uses permitted by the Privacy Act, see the Commission's privacy policy at (<http://www.ftc.gov/ftc/privacy.shtm>).

B. Requests to Participate as a Panelist

The workshop will consist of a roundtable format with participation by panelists selected by the FTC staff. Other attendees also will have an opportunity to comment and ask questions. Requests to participate as a panelist must be received on or before May 4, 2009. Persons selected as panelists will be notified on or before May 15, 2009.

Requests to participate as a panelist at the workshop should be submitted electronically to businessopportunityworkshop@ftc.gov, or, if mailed, should be submitted in the manner detailed in the ADDRESSES section of this Notice, and should be captioned "Business Opportunity Workshop—Request to Participate, Project No. P084405." Parties are asked to include in their requests a brief statement setting forth their expertise in or knowledge of the issues on which the workshop will focus as well as their contact information, including a phone number, facsimile number, and e-mail address (if available), to enable the FTC to notify them if they are selected. For requests filed in paper form, an original and two copies of each document should be submitted to Federal Trade Commission/Office of the Secretary, Room 135-H (Annex S), 600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Washington, DC, 20580, and must be received on or before May 4, 2009. The Commission will also accept requests to participate received at the following e-mail address: businessopportunityworkshop@ftc.gov.

C. Written and Electronic Comments

The submission of comments is not required for participation in the workshop. If a person wishes to submit written or electronic comments about the topics to be discussed at the workshop, such comments should be filed as prescribed in the ADDRESSES section above, and must be received on or before June 15, 2009. To read the FTC's policy on how it handles the information you submit, please visit (<http://www.ftc.gov/ftc/privacy.shtm>).

By direction of the Commission.
