Any person desiring to intervene or to protest in any of the above proceedings must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and § 385.214) on or before 5 p.m.

Eastern time on the specified comment date. It is not necessary to separately intervene again in a subdocket related to a compliance filing if you have previously intervened in the same docket. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. In reference to filings initiating a new proceeding, interventions or protests submitted on or before the comment deadline need not be served on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper, using the FERC Online links at <http://www.ferc.gov>. To facilitate electronic service, persons with Internet access who will eFile a document and/or be listed as a contact for an intervenor must create and validate an eRegistration account using the eRegistration link. Select the eFiling link to log on and submit the intervention or protests.

Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the intervention or protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First St., NE., Washington, DC 20426.

The filings in the above proceedings are accessible in the Commission's eLibrary system by clicking on the appropriate link in the above list. They are also available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an eSubscription link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). [Docket No. AD09-9-000]

Small Hydropower Development in the United States; Notice Granting Extension of Time To Provide Comments

December 10, 2009.

On December 2, 2009, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission held a Commissioner-led technical conference to explore issues related to licensing small non-federal hydropower projects in the United States. At the conference, Commission staff set January 4, 2010, as the due date for filing any written comments about small hydropower issues with the Commission. On December 4, 2009, American Rivers and the National Hydropower Association (NHA) filed a joint motion, requesting that the Commission extend the comment due date to February 4, 2010. In their filing, American Rivers and the NHA state that the additional time will allow for the submission of thoughtful and more detailed comments.

Upon consideration, notice is hereby given that an extension of time for all interested entities to file comments is granted to and including February 4, 2010.

Tres Amigas LLC; Notice of Filing

December 9, 2009.

Take notice that on December 8, 2009, Tres Amigas LLC filed a petition for disclaimer of jurisdiction, pursuant to Rule 207 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.207 (2009), requesting the Commission to issue a declaratory order ruling that any transmission owner that constructs transmission facilities interconnecting the ERCOT grid to the proposed Tres Amigas Superstation (Tres Amigas) will not be subject to the Commission's jurisdiction as a public utility under the Federal Power Act by virtue of such interconnection, that transmission services over the alternating current (AC) lines from ERCOT to Tres Amigas (and synchronized with the ERCOT grid) will not be subject to the Commission's jurisdiction, and that establishing a new AC to Direct Current interconnection between Tres Amigas and ERCOT will not change the jurisdictional status of any other ERCOT utilities or ERCOT transaction.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214).
