SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Preamble

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4)) requires the Department to publish in the Federal Register this notice of an altered system of records. The Department's regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) in 34 CFR part 5b.

The Privacy Act applies to a record about an individual that is maintained in a system of records from which information is retrieved by a unique identifier associated with the individual, such as a name or Social Security Number (SSN). The information about each individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-based, is called a "system of records".

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish notices of altered systems of records in the Federal Register and to prepare reports to Chair of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, and the Chair of the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, OMB whenever the agency publishes a new system of records or significantly alters an established system of records.

A system of records is considered "altered" whenever an agency expands the types or categories of information maintained, significantly expands the types or categories of individuals about whom records are maintained, changes the purpose for which the information is used, changes the equipment configuration in a way that creates substantially greater access to the records, or adds a routine use disclosure to the system. Since the last correction to this system of records, which was published in the Federal Register on April 11, 2001 (66 FR 18758), a number of changes are needed to update the current system of records. This notice proposes to update the categories of records maintained in the system, to clarify the system's purposes, and to expand the programmatic routine use disclosures needed to carry out responsibilities under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, (HEA).

This system of records would facilitate the Secretary of Education's performance of statutory duties to verify information submitted by applicants and parents of dependent applicants. The Secretary of Education, in cooperation with the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, is required under the HEA, to verify Social Security Numbers (SSNs) submitted by applicants. In addition, the Secretary of Education is required to verify the immigration status of applicants through the use of computer matching. The Secretary also collects information on parent(s) of dependent applicants, including SSNs, dates of birth, first initials and last names. The Secretary verifies the SSN of a parent of a dependent applicant in the same manner that the SSN of an applicant is verified.

The changes proposed in the attached altered notice are intended to expand the information maintained in the system, to clarify the system's purposes, and to add routine uses to make disclosures needed to carry out statutory responsibilities contained in the system. Collectively, these revisions will enhance the ability of the Secretary to combat fraud, waste, and abuse in the Department's programs and operations and perform the statutorily required verification of data submitted by student aid applicants and the parent(s) of dependent applicants.

This system of records includes records on individuals who are applying for Title IV, HEA program assistance. The records contain individually identifying information about an applicant, including, but not limited to: an applicant's name, address, SSN, date of birth, citizenship status, status as a veteran, driver's license number, marital status, and income and asset information. This system also contains information provided by the parent(s) of a dependent applicant, including, but not limited to: Name, date of birth, marital status, SSN, highest level of schooling completed, e-mail address, and income and asset information. This system of records also contains information about the spousal income and asset information of a married applicant.

Accessible Format: Individuals with disabilities can obtain this document in an accessible format (e.g., braille, large print, audiotope, or computer diskette) on request to the contact person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

William J. Taggart,

Chief Operating Officer, Federal Student Aid.

For the reasons discussed in the preamble, the Chief Operating Officer, Federal Student Aid, of the U.S. Department of Education (Education), publishes a notice of an altered system of records to read as follows:

SYSTEM NUMBER:

18-11-01

SYSTEM NAME:

Federal Student Aid Application File.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

None.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Virtual Data Center (VDC), 2300 W. Plano Parkway, Plano, TX, 75075 (Electronic records).

Vangent, 901 South 42nd Street, Mt Vernon, IL 62864 (Paper, Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Applications Storage Facility).

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

This system contains records on students who apply for Federal student financial assistance under the student financial assistance programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA), as amended (Title IV, HEA Programs). This system also contains information on the parent(s) of a dependent applicant and the spouse of a married applicant.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

This system of records contains information provided by applicants for Title IV, HEA Program assistance, on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including, but not limited to, the applicant's name, address, Social Security Number (SSN), date of birth, telephone number, driver's license number, e-mail address, citizenship status, marital status, legal residence, status as a veteran, educational status, and financial data. This system also contains information provided about the parent(s) of a dependent applicant, including, but not limited to, the parent's highest level of schooling completed, marital status, SSN, last name and first initial, date of birth, e-mail address, number in household supported by the parent, and income and asset information. For an applicant who is married, this system of records also contains spousal income and asset information.

While using this system to analyze its student population data for verification selection via the Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) Analysis (IA) Tools product, postsecondary institution(s) attended by the applicant may create user defined fields with institutional data that is saved to the system. These data elements may consist of information that is privacy protected. Examples include, but are not limited to: the student's grade point average or information about a student's employment with the postsecondary institution.

Individually identifying information that is generated and maintained in the Federal Student Aid's Federal Student Aid Application File (18-11-01) within the Central Processing System (CPS) is covered by this system of records. The CPS determines an applicant's expected family contribution, which is used by the school to determine the student's eligibility for a Federal Pell Grant, and notifies an applicant via the Student Aid Report (SAR) and the schools identified on the applicant's FAFSA via the ISIR of discrepant or insufficient data, school adjustments, CPS assumptions, comment codes, and reject reasons. Other information that the CPS includes, but is not limited to: expected family contribution (EFC), Secondary EFC, dependency status, Federal Pell Grant Eligibility, Duplicate SSN, selection for verification, SAR C Flag, Simplified Needs Test (SNT) or Automatic Zero EFC (used for extremely low family income), CPS processing comments, reject codes (that explain why a record did not complete processing), assumptions made to the student's data due to incomplete or inconsistent FAFSA data, financial aid administrator's (FAA) adjustments including dependency status overrides, and CPS record processing information (application receipt date, transaction number, transaction process date, SAR Serial Number, Compute Number, Data Release Number (DRN), National Student Loan Database System (NSLDS) match results, bar code and transaction source).

Information from other Department systems, such as NSLDS, the Common Origination and Disbursement System (COD), the Student Aid Internet Gateway (SAIG), Participation Management System, is added to this system of records. The Appendix contains a more detailed description of the data added to this system of records as a result of the exchanges of data with other Department systems and the Department's computer matching programs with other Federal agencies.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

Paper applications are maintained in standard Federal Records Center boxes in locked storage rooms at the contractor facility in Mt. Vernon, Illinois and then moved to the Federal archives and maintained there.

Physical access to the data systems housed within the VDC is controlled by a computerized badge reading system, and the entire complex is patrolled by security personnel during non-business hours. The computer system employed by the Department offers a high degree of resistance to tampering and circumvention. Multiple levels of security are maintained within the computer system control program. This security system limits data access to Department and contract staff on a "need-to-know" basis, and controls individual users' ability to access and alter records within the system. All users of this system of records are given a unique user ID with personal identifiers. All interactions by individual users with the system are recorded. Paper applications are maintained in standard Federal Records Center boxes in a locked storage room at the contractor facility in Mount Vernon, Illinois and then moved to the Federal archives and maintained there.
