

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES
TRADE REPRESENTATIVE*Generalized System of Preferences (GSP): Notice of Actions Arising Out of the 2010 Annual GSP Review

AGENCY: Office of the United States
Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice of a petition accepted for review; and request for comments.

SUMMARY: In September 2010, the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) accepted petitions in connection with the 2010 GSP Annual Review to modify the GSP status of certain GSP beneficiary developing countries because of country practices. In November 2010, USTR accepted petitions requesting waivers of GSP competitive need limitations (CNLs). On January 1, 2011, authorization of the GSP program lapsed. Following the recent reauthorization of the GSP program, the GSP Subcommittee of the Trade Policy Staff Committee (TPSC) announces that it has accepted for review a country practices petition submitted for the 2010 GSP Annual Review regarding the Republic of Georgia. This notice sets forth the schedule for submitting comments and conducting the public hearing on the newly accepted petition, requesting to participate in the hearing, and submitting pre-hearing and post-hearing briefs. The deadline for submitting pre-hearing comments and requesting participation in the hearing is 5 p.m., January 10, 2012. The petition can be found in docket USTR–2010–0017 at <http://www.regulations.gov>.

This notice also announces that in view of the lapse in authorization of the GSP program through much of 2011, there will be no actions taken in 2011 with respect to CNLs, including no CNL-related removals of products from GSP eligibility and no redesignations of products currently subject to CNLs. Petitions previously accepted that requested waivers of CNL-related exclusions based on 2010 trade data are hereby dismissed.

Cancellation of the 2010 Review of CNL Waiver Petitions

The statute governing the GSP program, 19 U.S.C. 2463(c)(2), provides that the President shall, not later than July 1 of the next calendar year, terminate the duty-free treatment for articles from GSP beneficiary countries that exceed the statutory competitive need limitations for the preceding year. In view of the lapse in the authorization of the GSP program from January 1, 2011 to November 5, 2011, a review of products subject to CNLs based on calendar year 2010 trade data and petitions seeking waivers of CNLs based on calendar year 2010 trade data could not be completed prior to the statutory deadline. Therefore, no CNL-related actions will be taken in 2011, including no CNL-related removals of GSP-eligible products based on 2010 trade and no redesignations of GSP-eligible products currently subject to CNL exclusions for specific GSP beneficiary countries. Petitions for CNL waivers that were accepted in December 2010 are dismissed.

The schedule for petitions seeking waivers of CNLs based on calendar year 2011 trade data is set forth in a separate Federal Register notice announcing the 2011 GSP Annual Review.
