RIN 2130-AB96

Railroad Workplace Safety; Adjacent-Track On-Track Safety for Roadway Workers

AGENCY: Federal Railroad Administration (FRA), Department of Transportation (DOT).

ACTION: Final rule; delay of effective date and request for comments.

SUMMARY: This document delays the effective date of the final rule published November 30, 2011, and scheduled to take effect on May 1, 2012. The final rule mandates that roadway workers comply with specified on-track safety procedures that railroads must adopt to protect those workers from the movement of trains or other on-track equipment on “adjacent controlled track,” and requests comments on the petitions for reconsideration of the final rule that FRA has received. In response to the final rule, FRA received two petitions for reconsideration that raise a number of substantive issues requiring a detailed response. Accordingly, in order to respond fully to the petitions for reconsideration and for the reasons set forth below, this document delays the effective date of the final rule until July 1, 2013. FRA is establishing a 60-day comment period in order to permit interested parties an opportunity to respond to the submitted petitions for reconsideration.

DATES: The effective date for the final rule published November 30, 2011, at 76 FR 74586, and originally effective on May 1, 2012, is delayed until July 1, 2013. Comments in response to the petitions for reconsideration must be received on or before May 7, 2012.

Follow the online instructions for accessing the docket.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kenneth Rusk, Staff Director, Track Division, Office of Safety Assurance and Compliance, FRA, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE., RRS-15, Mail Stop 25, Washington, DC 20590 (telephone 202-493-6236); or Anna Winkle, Trial Attorney, Office of Chief Counsel, FRA, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE., RCC-12, Mail Stop 10, Washington, DC 20590 (telephone 202-493-6166 or 202-493-6052).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On November 30, 2011, FRA published a final rule amending its regulations on railroad workplace safety to further reduce the risk of serious injury or death to roadway workers performing work with potentially distracting equipment near certain adjacent tracks. See 76 FR 74586. In particular, the rule requires that roadway workers comply with specified on-track safety procedures that railroads must adopt to protect those workers from the movement of trains or other on-track equipment on "adjacent controlled track." The effective date of this final rule was to be May 1, 2012. In response to the final rule, FRA received two petitions for reconsideration that raise substantive issues, requiring a detailed response from FRA. One of the petitions requests a delay in the effective date of the final rule until July 1, 2013, for reasons related to the railroads' safety training schedules. In addition, since the publication of the final rule, it has come to FRA's attention that, while the overwhelming majority of railroads complete their annual training of roadway workers by May 1st of each calendar year, there is at least one railroad that does not complete its training by that date but that would complete it by July 1st of the calendar year. Accordingly, in order to allow FRA appropriate time to consider and fully respond to the petitions for reconsideration and to accommodate all of the railroads' normal training schedules, this document delays the effective date of the final rule until July 1, 2013. Therefore, any requirements imposed by the final rule need not be complied with until July 1, 2013.

Additionally, FRA is establishing a 60-day comment period in order to permit interested parties an opportunity to respond to the petitions for reconsideration related to Docket No. FRA-2008-0059, Notice No. 4. The petitions for reconsideration are available for review in the docket for this rulemaking, and have been assigned identification numbers of FRA-2008-0059-0031 and FRA-2008-0059-0032. FRA's response to the petitions for reconsideration and any comments received on these petitions will be published under a new RIN number (2130-AC37), but will be filed in the same docket.

Privacy Act

Anyone is able to search the electronic form of all comments received into any of FRA's dockets by the name of the individual submitting the comment (or signing the comment, if submitted on behalf of an association, business, labor union, etc.).
