

adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously-applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities:

Phosphate fertilizer plants.

Estimated Number of Respondents:

13.

Frequency of Response: Initially, occasionally, and semiannually.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 1,373.

Estimated Total Annual Cost:

$453,090, which includes $132,900 in labor costs, no capital/startup costs, and $320,190 in operation and maintenance (O&M) costs.

Changes in the Estimates: The increase in burden from the most recently approved ICR is due to an adjustment of respondent and Agency labor hours. The previous ICR assumed that burden hours accounted for all technical, managerial, and clerical hours. To be consistent with the estimation methodology used in other ICRs, this ICR assumes that labor hours account for technical hours only. Clerical and managerial hours require additional time, and equal 10 and 5 percent of technical hours, respectively. Additionally, this ICR uses updated labor rates, resulting in an increase to the total burden costs.

Abstract: This ICR covers the usage of TANAs with members of the impacted community in order to determine how the community is receiving technical information about a Superfund remedial or removal site; whether the community needs additional assistance in order to understand and respond to site-related technical information; and whether there are organizations in the community that are interested or involved in site-related issues and capable of acting as an appropriate conduit for technical assistance services to the affected community. Given the specific nature of the TANA, 8 to 10 persons will be interviewed per site, with an estimated total of 250 persons being interviewed per year (25 sites). Responses to the collection of information are voluntary and the names of respondents will be protected by the Privacy Act. The TANA will help ensure the community's needs for technical assistance are defined as early in the remedial/removal process as possible and enable meaningful community involvement in the Superfund decision-making process. Additionally, the TANA process produces a blueprint for designing a coordinated effort to meet the community's needs for additional technical assistance while minimizing the overlap of services provided.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities:

Respondents to this ICR are local/state government officials, potentially-responsible party (PRP) representatives, and individual community members who may be impacted by a Superfund site or a removal action lasting 120 days or longer. These community members voluntarily participate in community involvement activities throughout the remedial phase of the Superfund process. SIC Codes are OSHA's Standard Industrial Classification System used to identify different groups. Local/state governments are categorized as Division J: Public Administration, Major Group 95: Administration of Environmental Quality, subgroup 9511: Air and Water Resource and Solid Waste Management. The other respondents, community members, do not have a SIC Code as they do not constitute an industry.

Respondent's obligation to respond: voluntary.

Estimated number of respondents: 250 (per year).

Frequency of response: Once during the remediation of the Site. Each TANA
