

The workers are engaged in activities related to the supply of healthcare services. The worker group is engaged in activities related to the supply of information technology services, specifically desktop and computing services, data center and server management, and network management services. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 10, 2013 (78 FR 34673).

The Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information from the company shows that worker separations at Catholic Health Initiatives, ITS, Englewood, Colorado were attributable to the same acquisition of services that led to the certification of workers at the other locations.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by the acquisition of information technology services.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers from Catholic Health's, ITS, Englewood, Colorado location.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-81,097 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers from Catholic Health Initiatives, Information Technology Services, ITS Technical Services, working on-site at St. Elizabeth Regional Medical Center, including on-site leased workers from TEKsystems, Lincoln, Nebraska (TA-W-82,374), Catholic Health Initiatives, Information Technology Services, ITS Technical Services, working on-site at The Physician Network, including on-site leased workers from TEKsystems, Lincoln, Nebraska (TA-W-82,374A), Catholic Health Initiatives, Information Technology Services, ITS Technical Services, working on-site at Nebraska Heart Institute, including on-site leased workers from TEKsystems and Concentric, Lincoln, Nebraska (TA-W-82,374B), Catholic Health Initiatives, Information Technology Services, ITS Technical Services, working on-site at Nebraska Heart Hospital, including on-site leased workers from TEKsystems, Lincoln, Nebraska (TA-W-82,374C), and Catholic Health Initiatives, Information Technology Services, ITS Technical Services, including on-site leased workers from TEKsystems, Englewood, Colorado (TA-W-82,374D) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 28, 2012, through May 23, 2015, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC this 25th day of July, 2014.

West Point Products Acquisition, a Subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Kelly Services, Valley Grove, West Virginia; West Point Products Acquisition, a Subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Warehouse Division, Washington, Pennsylvania; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. § 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 24, 2013, applicable to workers of West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services, Valley Grove, West Virginia. The Department's notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on November 6, 2014 (78 FR 26504).

In response to a petition (TA-W-85,198) filed on behalf of workers at West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Warehouse Division, Washington, Pennsylvania, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of laser print cartridges used in commercial and desktop printers.

The company reports that worker separations at West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Washington, Pennsylvania are attributable to the same shift in production that contributed importantly to worker separations at the Valley Grove, West Virginia location.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers located at West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Warehouse Division, Washington, Pennsylvania.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-83,034 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services, Valley Grove, West Virginia (TA-W-83,034) and West Point Products Acquisition, LLC, a subsidiary of Clover Technologies Group, LLC, Warehouse Division, Washington, Pennsylvania (TA-W-83,244A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 28, 2012 through September 24, 2015, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC this 25th day of July 2014.

Investigations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 28, 2014.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment

Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 28, 2014.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-5428, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 6th day of August 2014.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by (TA-W) number issued during the period of July 28, 2014 through August 1, 2014.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. the sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. the country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. there has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made for secondarily affected workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the workers' firm (or subdivision) is a supplier or downstream producer to a firm (or subdivision) that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance benefits and such supply or production is related to the article that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) either—

(A) the workers' firm is a supplier and the component parts it supplied for the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) accounted for at least 20 percent of the production or sales of the workers' firm; or

(B) a loss of business by the workers' firm with the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance to issue a
