SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The notice for this system of records states the record system’s name and location, authority for and manner of operation, categories of individuals it covers, types of records it contains, sources of information in the records, and the “routine uses” from Appendix A for which the agency may use the information. Appendix B includes the business address of the NARA official you may contact to find out how you may access and correct records pertaining to yourself. You may find Appendix A and Appendix B on NARA’s Web site at <https://www.archives.gov/privacy/inventory.html>.

The Privacy Act provides certain safeguards for an individual against an invasion of personal privacy. It requires Federal agencies that disseminate any record of personally identifiable information to do so in a manner that assures the action is for a necessary and lawful purpose, the information is current and accurate for its intended use, and the agency provides adequate safeguards to prevent misuse of such information. NARA intends to follow these principles when transferring information to another agency or individual as a “routine use,” including assuring that the information is relevant for the purposes for which it is transferred.
