NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

[NARA-2017-050]

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice of proposed extension request.

SUMMARY: NARA proposes to request an extension from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) of approval to use a voluntary survey of visitors to our downtown facility in Washington, DC. We use the American Association of State and Local History (AASLH) customer survey to ask a random sample of visitors to the National Archives Museum whether the Museum is successfully achieving its goals, and to help us determine if we need to make any modifications to our services. The survey takes 12 minutes. We invite you to comment on certain aspects of this proposed information collection.

DATES: We must receive written comments on or before August 14, 2017.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to Paperwork Reduction Act Comments (MP), Room 4100; National Archives and Records Administration; 8601 Adelphi Road; College Park, MD 20740-6001, or email them to tamee.fechhelm@nara.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Contact Tamee Fechhelm by telephone at 301-837-1694, or by email at tamee.fechhelm@nara.gov, with requests for additional information or copies of the proposed information collection and supporting statement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: We invite the public and Federal agencies to comment on information collections we propose to renew. We submit proposals to renew information collections first through a public comment period and then to OMB for review and approval pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA; 44 U.S.C. 3501 et. seq.). We will summarize or include in our request for OMB approval any comments you submit in response to this notice. We invite comments on: (a) Whether the proposed information collection is necessary for NARA to properly perform its functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) our estimate of the information collection's burden on respondents; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information we propose to collect; (d) ways to minimize the burden on respondents of collecting the information, including through use of information technology; and (e) whether this collection affects small businesses. We will summarize any comments you submit and include the summary in our request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. In this notice, NARA solicits comments concerning the following information collection:

Title: NARA Visitors Study.

OMB number: 3095–0067.

Agency form number: n/a.

Type of review: Regular.

Affected public: Individuals who visit the National Archives Museum in Washington, DC.

Estimated number of respondents: 200.

Estimated time per response: 12 minutes.

Frequency of response: On occasion (when an individual visits the National Archives Museum in Washington, DC between July–October 2018 and July–October 2020).

Estimated total annual burden hours: 40 hours.

Abstract: The general purpose of this voluntary data collection is to benchmark NARA's performance in relation to other history museums. The information we collect from visitors will allow us to assess the overall impact, expectations, presentation, logistics, motivation, demographic profile, and learning experience visitors receive from the visit, and to determine whether we are meeting our goals.

Swarnali Halder,

Executive for Information Services/CIO.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

[NARA–2017–049]

Agency Information Collection Activities: Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: NARA is requesting an extension from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) of approval to use the following three information collections. We use the first information collection form to advise requesters of the procedures they should follow to request certified copies of records for use in civil litigation or criminal actions in courts of law, and the information they need to provide us so that we can identify the correct records. Veterans, military dependents, and other authorized people use the second information collection form to request information from, or copies of, documents in military personnel, military medical, and dependent medical records. Genealogical researchers use the National Archives Trust Fund (NATF) forms contained in the third information collection to order records for genealogical research. We invite you to comment on these three proposed information collections.

DATES: OMB must receive written comments at the address below on or before July 14, 2017.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to Mr. Nicholas A. Fraser, desk officer for NARA, by mail to Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503, by fax to 202–395–5167, or by email to Nicholas_A_Fraser@omb.eop.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Please direct requests for additional information or copies of the proposed information collection and supporting statement to Tamee Fechhelm by phone at 301–837–1694 or by email to tamee.fechhelm@nara.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: We invite the public and Federal agencies to comment on information collections we propose to renew. We submit proposals to renew information collections first through a public comment period and then to OMB for review and approval pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA; 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.). We published a notice of proposed collection for these information collections on April 7, 2017 (82 FR 17038), and we received no comments. We have therefore submitted the described information collections to OMB for approval.

We invite comments on: (a) Whether the proposed information collections are necessary for NARA to properly perform its functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) our estimates of the information collection's burden on respondents; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information we propose to collect; (d) ways to minimize the burden on respondents of collecting the information, including through use of information technology; and (e) whether these collections affect small businesses. All comments will become a matter of public record. In this notice, NARA solicits comments concerning the following information collections:

1. Title: Court Order Requirements.

OMB number: 3095–0038.

Agency form number: NA Form 13027.

Type of review: Regular.

Affected public: Military service members, their dependents, veterans, former Federal civilian employees, their authorized representatives, state and local governments, and businesses.

Estimated number of respondents: 5,000.

Estimated time per response: 15 minutes.

Frequency of response: On occasion (when respondent needs to request information for use in litigation or an action in a court of law).

Estimated total annual burden hours: 1,250 hours.

Abstract: The information collection is prescribed by 36 CFR 1228.164. In accordance with rules issued by the Office of Personnel Management, NARA's National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) administers former Federal civilian employee Official Personnel Folders (OPF) and Employee Medical Folders (EMF). In accordance with rules issued by the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security (U.S. Coast Guard), NPRC also administers military service records of veterans after discharge, retirement, and death, and the medical records of these veterans, current members of the Armed Forces, and their dependents. We use the NA Form 13027, Court Order Requirements, to advise requesters of (1) the procedures they should follow to request certified copies of records for use in civil litigation or criminal actions in courts of law and (2) the information they need to provide so that we can identify the correct records.

2. Title: Forms Relating to Military Service Records.

OMB number: 3095–0039.

Agency form number: NA Forms 13036, 13042, 13055, 13075, and 13177.

Type of review: Regular.

Affected public: Veterans, military dependents, their authorized representatives, state and local governments, and businesses.

Estimated number of respondents: 132,500.

Estimated time per response: 5 minutes.

Frequency of response: On occasion (when respondent wishes to request information from a military personnel, military medical, and dependent medical record).

Estimated total annual burden hours: 11,042 hours.

Abstract: The information collection is prescribed by 36 CFR 1228.164. In accordance with rules issued by the
