BILLING CODE 4410-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 004-2019]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Executive Office for Immigration Review, United States Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-108, notice is hereby given that the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), a component within the United States Department of Justice (DOJ or Department), proposes to develop a new system of records titled Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer (OCAHO) Case Management System (CMS), JUSTICE/EOIR-002. The EOIR proposes to establish this system of records to track and manage case information and documents for OCAHO cases. The system provides an electronic platform to track cases and electronically maintain records previously maintained in paper form for the purpose of more efficiently managing these records and providing better access to the records for parties to the proceedings.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this system of records will begin operation on the publication date, subject to a 30-day period in which to comment on the routine uses, described below. Please submit any comments by September 16, 2019.

ADDRESSES: The public, OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, 145 N Street NE, Suite 8W.300, Washington, DC 20530, or by facsimile at 202-307-0693, or email at privacy.compliance@usdoj.gov. To ensure proper handling, please reference the above CPCLO Order No. on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marta Rothwarf and Michelle Curry, Associate General Counsels and Co-Senior Component Officials for Privacy, Office of the General Counsel, Executive Office for Immigration Review, 5107 Leesburg Pike, Suite 2600, Falls Church, VA 22041, by email at marta.rothwarf2@usdoj.gov and michelle.curry@usdoj.gov, or by facsimile at 703-305-0443.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: EOIR proposes to establish a new system of records subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The proposed system of records will be used by OCAHO to facilitate adjudication of its cases, track and manage cases and records, consisting of paper and electronic files maintained by OCAHO. The records to be maintained in this new system historically have been included as part of EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System. They are being transferred into this new system to improve efficiency, improve records management practices, and provide more convenient access for parties to proceedings.

OCAHO Administrative Law Judges (ALJs) hear cases and adjudicate issues arising under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) relating to: (1) Knowingly hiring, recruiting or referring for a fee, or continuing to employ unauthorized aliens, failure to comply with employment eligibility verification requirements, and requiring indemnity bonds from employees in violation of section 274A of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1324a); (2) immigration-related unfair employment practices in violation of section 274B of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1324b); and (3) immigration-related document fraud in violation of section 274C of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1324c).

Complaints under sections 274A and 274C of the INA are filed by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Complaints under section 274B of the INA may be filed by private individuals or entities, or by the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Immigrant and Employee Rights Section. The respondents in the cases handled by OCAHO are typically businesses or employers. The parties to 274A and 274C cases may seek administrative review of ALJ decisions and orders by the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer (CAHO). Parties in all OCAHO cases may appeal final agency orders to the appropriate United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

In connection with the cases and appeals handled by OCAHO, it collects certain information and documents from and about complainants and respondents. The Immigrant and Employee Rights Section (DOJ/CRT) and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (DHS), which file complaints with OCAHO, often will submit investigatory records as exhibits or attachments to their filings. These investigatory records may include notices of inspection, summaries of inspection results, affidavits or memoranda from investigators, results from searches of internal agency databases, and other records related to their investigations. The exhibits or attachments then become part of OCAHO's official case record. As a result, these investigatory records may be exempt from access or amendment rights.

To improve tracking and storage of case-related information and documents, OCAHO is implementing a new electronic case management system (CMS). The OCAHO CMS will manage the entire life cycle of OCAHO's case processes, including: (1) Tracking and managing case information and documents from complaint through adjudication, review, and when applicable, appeal; (2) facilitating case research; (3) and reporting on key business functions and metrics. The OCAHO CMS includes an electronic filing capability, which will enable parties to submit case information and documents electronically through a secure web-based portal. The portal will also provide notifications and updates on case status to system users, and will allow authorized parties to a proceeding to access copies of case-related documents electronically. The system contains templates to generate letters, notices, and decisions used in the OCAHO adjudicatory process, and the system generates reports by case status and disposition.

Information from the system may be shared pursuant to the requirements of the Privacy Act and, in the case of its routine uses, when the disclosure is compatible with the purpose for which the information was collected. The system is segregated by "need to know" user controls, and allows authorized users to track various stages of the proceedings.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this new system of records.

Dated: August 7, 2019.

Peter A. Winn,

Acting Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer United States Department of Justice.

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b), all or a portion of the records or information contained in this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) under the circumstances or for the purposes described below, to the extent such disclosures are compatible with the purposes for which the information was collected:

1. Where a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law—criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature—the relevant records may be referred to the appropriate federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing such law.

2. To complainants and/or victims to the extent necessary to provide such persons with information and explanations concerning the progress and/or results of the investigation or case arising from the matters of which they complained and/or of which they were a victim.

4. In an appropriate proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, when the Department of Justice determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.

5. To an actual or potential party to litigation or the party's authorized representative for the purpose of negotiation or discussion of such matters as settlement, plea bargaining, or informal discovery proceedings.

6. To the news media and the public, including disclosures pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2, unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

7. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the Federal Government, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records.

8. To designated officers and employees of state, local, territorial, or tribal law enforcement or detention agencies in connection with the hiring or continued employment of an employee or contractor, where the employee or contractor would occupy or

14. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the Department suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records, (2) the Department has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Department (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Department efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

Paper copies of records are maintained in file folders in secure locations. Electronic records are stored on secure servers and storage media.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Authorized internal users may retrieve paper records through OCAHO case numbers and electronic records through an internet portal that will allow searches by a party's name, OCAHO case number, region, city and state, or fiscal or calendar year. ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

DOJ/EOIR/OCAHO will implement administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect information in the system. For example, internet connections are protected by multiple firewalls, and security personnel conduct periodic vulnerability scans using DOJ-approved software to ensure security compliance. Security logs are enabled for computers to assist in troubleshooting and forensic analysis during incident investigations. Need-to-know access is provided and verified by Personal Identity Verification (PIV) access which requires a valid user identification and password. Electronic records are segregated and stored in secure cloud-based redundant server locations. Paper records are segregated and stored in secure locations with locked cabinets. Both paper and electronic records are accessible only to those with a need to access the information for the performance of their official duties and who have appropriate clearances or permissions.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This ICR seeks to extend PRA authority for the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 Investment Manager Electronic Registration information collection. The Department's regulation provides that, in order to meet the definition of investment manager in section 3(38) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, state-registered investment advisers must register electronically through a centralized electronic filing system established by the SEC or a State investment authority called the Investment Adviser Registration Depository ("IARD"), rather than providing a paper copy of their state registration to the Secretary of Labor. Under section 402(c)(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), if an "investment manager" (as defined in section 3(38)) of ERISA manages plan assets, the plan's trustee is relieved from certain fiduciary obligations relating to the management of the assets for which the investment manager is responsible. ERISA section 3(38) authorizes this information collection. See 29 U.S.C. 1002(38)(B).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1210-0125.

OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal, and the current approval for this collection is scheduled to expire on August 31, 2019. The DOL seeks to extend PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) more years, without any change to existing requirements. The DOL notes that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on March 27, 2019 (84 FR 11573).

Interested parties are encouraged to send comments to the OMB, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs at the address shown in the ADDRESSES section within thirty (30) days of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. In order to help ensure appropriate consideration, comments should mention OMB Control Number 1210-0125. The OMB is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.
